TRUMAN BACKS MARSHALL ON SOVIET ISSUE

Declares Action Rather Than Talks Is the Real Need.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 13—President Truman said today that his hopes for eventual peace have not been increased by the recent exchange of notes with Russia.

The President told a news conference he is supporting to the limit Secretary of State Marshall's statement that what is needed is action, rather than general talks. Marshall said yesterday that if Russia desires to promote peace she can act through the United Nations and other allied agencies. The secretary of state ruled out any two-nation, Russo-American talks on matters of concern also to other nations.

President Truman said Marshall covered thoroughly the situation as left by the exchange of notes between Russia and the United States.

Would Meet Stalin

In response to questions, the President repeated what he has said often before—he would be glad to meet with Soviet Premier Stalin in Washington.

Asked what the two would talk about at such a meeting, the President said he would let the newsmen know if such a meeting ever came about.

The whole reaction here to Russia's publication of the notes suggests that the chance for any real improvement in relations between Russia and the United States hinges on whether there will be a basic change in Soviet foreign policy.

This is strongly indicated in the statements of top officials here commenting on the disclosure of Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith's two talks with Russian Foreign Minister Molotov, and Molotov's formal reply.

Both President Truman and Marshall have emphasized within the last three days that there is no departure in American policy, which is aimed at preventing further expansion of Russian power.

But the hope that there may be a change in the Soviet attitude toward the "cold war" and an increased willingness to settle outstanding problems was suggested directly by Marshall at the news conference.

Marshall cited a passage from Molotov's note last Sunday in which he declared that Russia intends to carry out "a peace-loving policy and one of collaboration with regard to the U.S.A."

Molotov said this has always been Russia's policy and it has had the unanimous support of the Soviet people.

Marshall told reporters this passage should be interpreted on the basis of the future rather than the past and that in this light it was a very important statement.

The cabinet officer said the people of the world will be watching to see how Molotov's declaration is applied. His own hope, he added, is that it will be reflected in a new spirit of negotiation on the part of the Soviet union.

Privately, American officials indicated that if the Russians show a sincere interest in trying to break the stalemate and arrive at settlements through the United Nations and other allied agencies, the United States will make every effort to help the negotiations along.

This would involve a willingness to compromise some points of disagreement, but authorities said there will be no yielding on principles. Furthermore, they added, except for such direct Soviet-American problems as those of trade relations, other interested nations would have to be included in any discussion.

MT. GILEAD EXECUTIVE. Howard M. Hubbard of Greenwich, Conn., pictured above, early in June will assume his new duties as president of the Hydraulic Press Manufacturing Co. of Mt. Gilead. He recently was elected by the board of directors to succeed Col. H. A. Toulmin Jr. of Dayton who resigned last November. Mr. Hubbard has held a number of industrial executive positions and for three years has been conducting his own consulting and development engineering business.

Legionnaires at LaRue Pitch In To Raze GAR Hall for New Home Site

By WILLIAM D. STANBRO

A community center at LaRue for the past 47 years and home of the LaRue American Legion post for 25 years, the GAR Hall has been the scene of its last civic function.

The two-story frame building erected in 1901 under the auspices of the LaRue community GAR contingent with funds derived from public subscription, is being torn down to make room for a new $22,000 post home for Phillippi-Clement Post No. 101, American Legion of LaRue.

Work on the entire undertaking, from razing the old community landmark to building the new brick and concrete post home is being done by members of the Legion post. Former doughboys of World War II are giving their time and services alike to complete the job.

Business and professional men are slipping over to the building whenever a free hour or so permits, members, who farm give a half day or so between crop sowings and those who punch the time clock five days a week manage to get in a good lick on Saturdays.

Building Comes Down

Razing operations started about a week ago and little more than the four walls remain standing today. Pinch bars, crowbars and any other wrecking tools that happen to be available are being wielded with plenty of vigor by the Legionnaires. The entire roof including supporting joists and rafters was reduced to a pile of slightly the worse for wear lumber in a single day's work.

Much of the lumber will be reclaimed and disposed of by the Post. Even though it is nearly a half century old, the timber in the building is for the most part nearly as sound as it was the day it went into construction of the hall.

It came from woodlots in the LaRue area and was donated by Civil war veterans instrumental in aiding the local GAR contingent in erecting a community hall. Logs were hauled to the old Slanser Lumber Co. saw mill at the site where the present LaRue Lumber Co. is located and sawed out into the lumber that now will be offered for building purposes a second time. Prominent among the Civil war veterans who assisted in the original undertaking were Jefferson and John Bell, Matthew Knapp, Marshall Markey, Basil Ridgway and William Kinnaman who until his death several years ago was the last living GAR member of the LaRue community.

Disband in 1924

The Civil war veterans kept their organization going until 1924 when time took its toll of membership and scarcely a handful of the group remained. Disbanding, they turned the hall over to the veterans of World War I who had in 1920 formed the Clarence Phillippi Post of the American Legion and had for several years been given permission to use the hall as a meeting place.

Only provision in handing over the reins of the Legion was that the GAR should be remembered by a memorial to be erected in the LaRue cemetery north of town. This was done in 1925.

Instrumental in forming the LaRue post were Walter Lingo, Dr. Harry A. Hoopes, Keith Ridgway, George Oberdier, Roy Thew, Theo McElheny, Ralph Rodgers and Ed Crowley. Dr. James C. Thuma was the first post commander.

National recognition has come to the post through "Doc" Hoopes who has served both as a state officer in the 40 et 8, an adjunct of the Legion as a member of Legion national committees. "Doc" has been present at all but three of the national conventions of the Legion organization.

450 Members Enrolled

The post which started out in 1920 with about 40 members has grown to a membership now numbering more than 150. During the years, the post building fund has continued to keep pace with increasing membership and now stands at upwards of $15,000. With this fund to go on the post decided this year to take the big step.

Commander Ronald McElheny appointed a building committee comprising Willis Bowles, post treasurer for more than 20 years, Keith Ridgway and Dwight Sager, the latter serving as chairman. William Thew was named as civilian advisor to the committee.

Keeping the project still a Legion undertaking, the building committee secured the services of architect John H. Moore, commander of Bird McGinnis Post in Marion, to provide plans for the new home.

Specifications call for a two-story concrete and brick building 58 feet in length by 32 feet in width, the lower story sunk in semi-basement fashion. The upper floor which will be used as a banquet room will include a stage

JEWS ORDER LAST MINUTE MOBILIZATION

Call All Trained Men and Women of Fighting Age To Serve New State.

By The Associated Press

JERUSALEM, May 13—Jewish forces called upon all trained men and women of fighting age today to mobilize for the "zero hour" in Palestine when a Jewish state is proclaimed.

The state will be proclaimed early tomorrow night, effective one minute after midnight, when the British mandate ends. The Jewish provisional government decided in Tel Aviv to proclaim the state early in the evening to avoid such action on the Jewish Sabbath.

The Jewish mobilization call, issued in Haifa, ordered all men and women between the ages of 18 and 35 who have had any previous military training to report immediately for duty. These include not only those who have had training in Jewish forces, but also those who had any type of previous military training.

Observers said this was a precaution against possible invasion by the neighboring Arab countries. Egypt has imposed a stage of siege to prepare for possible Holy Land action. Syria and Lebanon are clamping down martial law when the mandate ends Friday midnight.

Arabs Make Preparations

At the same time the seven-nation Arab league prepared to set up what it called an Arab civil administration, as distinguished from a state to function in cooperation with occupying Arab forces.

Haganah, the Jewish army, planned to take over all-Arab Jaffa, which adjoins Tel Aviv. Jaffa's Arab emergency committee, set up when the port city's municipal government collapsed last week following Jewish attacks, surrendered Jaffa at 11 a. m. in Tel Aviv, accepting all Jewish terms.

In Cairo, Egypt's cabinet members approved a draft of a royal decree proclaiming martial law for Egypt as a means of supporting possible Egyptian military moves in support of the Palestine Arabs. The decree provides for appointment of Premier Mahmoud Fahmy Nokrashi Pasha as military governor. The interior ministry said the king would sign it in a matter of hours.

Committee Drafts Declaration

A five-man committee in Tel Aviv prepared a draft of the declaration proclaiming the Jewish state.

"For the first time in almost 2,000 years this Sabbath Friday, candles of the Holy Land Jewry will burn on the soil of a Jewish state," a member of the provisional government said.

Great Britain, which took the country from the Turks in 1917 and was given a League of Nations mandate in 1923, will surrender the mandate at midnight (5 p. m., eastern standard time) tomorrow.

Still Hope for Peace

Political maneuvering still is going on. A Jewish agency spokesman said last night that "we still hope for an agreement with Abdullah," king of Trans-Jordan to the East, to head off full-scale war between Palestine Jews and the armies of neighboring Arab states.

But in those states there were new reports of preparations for invasion. New Iraqi troops arrived at Mafrak in Trans-Jordan. Travelers from the south said Egyptian troops were moving toward Palestine. The Egyptian parliament in Cairo authorized the government to proclaim martial law to help the army in "operations outside the kingdom."

Arabs and Jews in the Holy Land already are fighting an unofficial war. This dated back to last Nov. 29, when the United Nations assembly voted to partition Palestine into Arab and Jewish countries and put Jerusalem under international trusteeship.

Court Holds Child May Sue On Injuries Suffered Before Birth

A $50,000 damage suit involving the right of a Marion child to sue after birth for pre-natal injuries, was headed today for the Ohio supreme court for review.

The Third District court of appeals at Lima yesterday in reversing a ruling by the Marion county common pleas court said an infant has cause for action if injuries occurred beyond the embryo stage, according to an Associated Press dispatch from that city.

The court certified the case to the supreme court for review since the decision is in conflict with one previously handed down by the Seventh district court.

Suit Against Bus Company

Suit was filed here March 18, 1947 by Isaac V. Williams of Sugar street on behalf of his daughter Mina Margaret Williams against the Marion Rapid Transit Co.

The action arose from a fall from a company bus by Mrs. Ruth Williams April 4, 1941, while alighting at a west side intersection. The petition alleged faulty condition of the bus step caused the fall which resulted in prenatal injury to Mina Margaret Williams born prematurely as a result of the accident. Mrs. Williams died July 28, 1944, allegedly as a result of injuries received in the fall from the bus step. The child now is seven years of age.

Judge Paul D. Smith ruled that no cause—for action existed as Ohio law does not allow for recovery of damages for pre-natal injury to an unborn child, sustaining a demurrer filed by Russell Wilhelm of Wilhelm and Robinson, attorneys for the Marion Rapid Transit Co.

Case Appealed

The child represented by the law firm of Yearick and Hughes of Youngstown, appealed to the district court Feb. 5, the court giving its decision yesterday. Judge Walter S. Jackson of Lima wrote the opinion which was concurred in by Judges George S. Middleton and Charles A. Guernsey.

Still in jurisdiction of the Marion county common pleas court is a second damage suit resulting from the accident. The petition, filed Jan. 29, 1946, by Mr. Williams against the bus company and Ray Maag, its president, seeks $35,000 damages in the death of Mrs. Williams. Suit is in behalf of himself and the Williams' three children including Louis E. Williams and Patsy Ann Williams in addition to Mina Margaret. Attorneys for Williams are Richard N. Larrimer of Columbus and Martin and Reed of Marion.

SEES STRIKE IF RAIL ISSUE'S NOT SETTLED

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 13—The three railroad brotherhoods which called off their threatened nationwide strike Monday night will run the trains as long as the government has control of the railroads.

But the minute the lines are turned back to the carriers, whether in two weeks or two years, they'll call another strike unless an agreement is reached meanwhile in their wage-rules dispute.

That was the word today from one of the top brotherhood men. He talked to a reporter on condition his name would not be disclosed.

This officer said the unions expect the temporary restraining order against the engineers, firemen and switchmen to be made permanent by Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough after a hearing next week. This would prevent the unions from striking as long as the government has control.

But, the union leader said, the three brotherhoods still consider as fair and proper their demands for a 30 per cent wage increase and 23 changes in working rules.

Stassen, Dewey Enter Closing Oregon Drive

By The Associated Press

PORTLAND, Ore., May 13 — Republican leaders Harold E. Stassen and Gov. Thomas E. Dewey headed today into the home stretch of their clear-cut race for this far west state's presidential preference vote.

Both candidates thumped on the topic of Communism last night.

Stassen initiated his final drive in an address here in western Oregon. At the same time his New York opponent appeared before a crowd at Pendleton, in the eastern Oregon wheat region. Each has a full schedule of appearances through the state before the ballots are cast May 21.

The election is the last direct primary before the party's national nomination convention in June. Both candidates — alone in the race — have to a great measure their presidential chances at stake in winning in Oregon.

Still undecided is the time and place for the unprecedented debate the two have agreed to stage.

TRUMAN OPPOSES OUTLAWING REDS

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 13—President Truman told a news conference today he is opposed to outlawing the Communist party in this country because he believes this would be entirely contrary to our principles.

His views on the question on which Republican presidential candidates have differed, were given when asked to state his opinion of the Mundt bill. That measure would require, among other things, registration of Communist party members.

Mr. Truman said splinter parties do no harm, and if there is any conspiracy to overthrow our form of government there are other ways of dealing with this.

He said he expects to send congress tomorrow a message on the farm problem, but has no message in mind on U. S. aid to rearm western Europe.

To a question whether the U. S. would recognize a Jewish state in Palestine, he said he would cross that bridge when he came to it.

The President said he will not release a report on the loyalty investigation of Dr. Edward U. Condon, director of the bureau of standards. A house committee has demanded the report. Congress, Mr. Truman said, has no power to compel confidential information from the executive branch. The courts have so ruled many times.

LONG CHRYSLER STRIKE FEARED

CIO Raises $8,000,000 To Back Workers in Walkout for More Pay.

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, May 13—An $8,000,000 "kitty" being raised by the CIO United Auto Workers for their Chrysler Corp. strikers today gave the auto industry reason to fear a long walkout.

The big corporation's 75,000 production workers who walked off the job yesterday morning to enforce union demands for 17 cents more per hour were set for a long siege on the picket lines.

"The strike of the Chrysler workers is solid," declared Emil Mazey, UAW secretary-treasurer and acting president who is directing the walkout. "They are set for the duration. The Chrysler workers will win."

Some observers estimated the strike might last as long as two months.

Orderly picket lines were set up at 12 Chrysler plants in Michigan, two in Indiana and one in California a short time after the strike deadline yesterday morning.

Almost immediately effects of the auto industry's first major strike in two years began to spread. Briggs Manufacturing Co., which supplies Chrysler plants, laid off 11,000 workers today and said the rest of its work force of 13,000 would be sent home Monday.

With the strike a day old, it was still uncertain whether it would be used as a test of Michigan's new labor law.

The Bonine-Tripp legislation requires a strike vote. The UAW, contending it did not apply because several Chrysler plants are outside Michigan, took strike action without such a vote.

Gov. Kim Sigler ordered the Michigan labor mediation board to find out "if the law is constitutional." Philip Weiss, chairman of the board, asked Prosecutor James B. McNally of Wayne county (Detroit) to take action.

PHONE STRIKE PLANNED

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 13—Plans for a nationwide strike of long distance telephone operators were set up today by the CIO American Telephone Workers union but the date for a walkout was left open.

Two Legion Auxiliaries Name Workers for Poppy Day Sale

Workers have been named for the annual American Legion Poppy day sale to be conducted Friday and Saturday in the downtown area by the women of the American Legion Auxiliary. Mayor Harry L. Dowler has issued a proclamation designating the two days as Poppy day.

The sale this year is being sponsored jointly by the auxiliary to Bird-McGinnis Post No. 162 and the auxiliary to GI Post No. 584.

In his proclamation, Mayor Dowler urged all citizens to observe the day by wearing the poppy in memory of all those who sacrificed their lives for their country in the two world wars, and by so doing helping to aid disabled veterans and their families.

Approximately 65 workers from the two auxiliaries will be on hand on the downtown streets, working in shifts. The sale is scheduled to get under way at 9 a. m. Friday.

Headquarters for the Bird-McGinnis auxiliary sale will be in the 40 et 8 boxcar in front of the courthouse, while GI post auxiliary will have its headquarters in the post clubroom. Representing the two groups as chairmen of the sale are Mrs. Robert Brown of the Bird-McGinnis unit and Mrs. Peter Joyce of the GI Post auxiliary.

ARMS AID TO RUSSIA TO GET U.S. BOYCOTT

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 15—The United States will shut off economic aid to any European nation which supplies war machinery to Russia, ERP Director Paul Hoffman said today.

Hoffman said:

"We will tell them they must stop it or we won't furnish aid."

The Economic Cooperation administrator was before the senate appropriations committee to ask further funds for the European recovery program.

Sen. Cordon (R-Ore) asked Hoffman what he intended to do to "control the translation of our goods in money" into war machinery for Russia?

"If it is true," said Hoffman, "that we are furnishing aid, and if a country is shipping such commodities, (to Russia), they have got to stop it or we won't furnish aid."

Hoffman gave the senators assurance, too, that ECA will ship abroad only those goods "which can wisely and safely be spared."

AIR FORCE TESTING TINY ESCORT PLANE

(Picture on Page 12)

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, May 13—The Air Force announced today is ground testing a tiny hitch-hiking, jet-propelled fighter designed to ride as escort for super-range bombers.

The miniature fighter is the McDonnell XF-85, a radical design adapted to stowage in the bomb bay of a B-36, which is more than ten times as large.

Known as a "Parasite" because it is based aboard another airplane, the XF-85 revives a principle tested extensively by the Navy some years ago when fighters were carried inside large dirigibles.

The jet plane has a wingspan of 21 feet and is but 15 feet long. It has sweptback wings, which fold at the outer panels. Double rudders are part of the design to put the plane into the smallest possible space.

It has no landing gear other than a retractable hook ahead of the cockpit by which it can be swung down from the bomb bay for launching in flight. It lands by engaging the hook.

The plane can be fueled and services in flight, and can be jettisoned in an emergency.

C. & O. ENGINE BLAST KILLS 3

Explosion Rips Front End of Locomotive in Wreck Near Chillicothe.

By The Associated Press

CHILLICOTHE, O., May 13—The death toll of an explosion of a Chesapeake & Ohio freight locomotive near here rose to three today.

Fireman T. R. Lauter of Ironton and Brakeman W. C. Bush of Siloam, Ky. died last night, several hours after the explosion, and W. R. Terry of Ironton, the engineer, died at 8:30 a. m. today.

Railroad officials today sought to determine the cause of the explosion that ripped the Columbus-bound engine. A steam pipe burst in the locomotive boiler later yesterday, spraying the engine cab with boiling water.

Pulling 156 Cars

Railroad officials said the engine was pulling 156 loaded coal cars at the time of the explosion, which ripped off the front end of the locomotive and scattered parts for a half mile. Main line traffic was disrupted for about an hour.

The accident occurred at 3:18 p. m. during a severe electrical storm. Lauter died at 6:15 p. m. and Bush died at 11:01 p. m.

Bush, blinded and scalded by steam, stumbled to a rise near the E. A. Eselgroth home, nearest house to the scene of the accident and shouted for help. Members of the Eselgroth family, who had believed the roar of the explosion was heavy thunder, ran to Bush's aid.

Quick action by Dick Vincent, who lives near the scene, prevented a freight train bound from Columbus to Russell, Ky., from plowing into the wreckage. Vincent put down flares ahead of the train approaching from Columbus on an adjacent track in time for the engineer to stop.

Rushed to Hospital

The injured men were placed on the cowcatcher of the southbound train stopped by Vincent and carried to a road crossing, where they were transferred to ambulances and rushed to the hospital.

Vincent grabbed a flare from his automobile trailer, ran to the scene, placed the flare and ran up the tracks waving his arms.

The southbound train ground to a step about 600 yards from the wrecked locomotive.

"The crew told me I probably saved them from smacking into the wrecked locomotive," Vincent said.

Taft Favors Slash In Waterways Funds

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 13—Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio) says he will vote for a $200,000,000 slash in the $640,243,000 waterways bill.

Taft told a reporter last night he favors the cutback proposed by Chairman Bridges (R-NH) and two other members of the senate appropriations committee.

"This is not the time," Taft said, "to spend a lot of money on public works."

The appropriations committee approved the bill, 16-3, and there were indications it might come up for a vote late today.

The bill includes funds for the year beginning July 1 for 94 rivers and harbors projects and 279 flood control projects

U.S. Seeks Action In Holy Land Crisis

By The Associated Press

LAKE SUCCESS, May 13—The United States today asked for appointment of a United Nations high commissioner for Palestine in a last-minute effort to force some UN action in the Holy Land crisis.

The surprise move came as the UN assembly desperately sought to reach an agreement, however small, before the British give up their mandate rule over Palestine at midnight (5 p. m., eastern staindard time) tomorrow.

The new American plan was announced here by a spokesman shortly after President Truman and Secretary of State Marshall conferred in Washington.

Ohio Boy and Girl Getting Safety Awards

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 13—Two Ohio teen-agers will receive medals from President Truman tomorrow for outstanding bravery in rescuing another from traffic danger.

Margaret Kezemheimer, 13, St. Margaret school, and Ernest Klimek, 13, Christ Lutheran school, both of Cleveland, are among 14 school patrol members cited by the American Automobile association.

Mr. Truman will present the medals as part of the national School Safety patrol parade and rally.

3 TRAPPED IN MINE

By The Associated Press

SHAMOKIN, Pa., May 13 — Rescue crews worked feverishly today in an attempt to reach three miners trapped 175 feet below the surface in an independently operated anthracite coal mine. The three were trapped yesterday as a heavy rain filled the shaft with about 50 feet of water, blocking any chance of escape until the water is pumped out.

AUXILIARY HONORS GOLD STAR MOTHERS

Post Pays Tribute to 26 at Meeting Here.

Twenty-six Marion gold star mothers of World Wars I and II were honored by the Auxiliary to Harry Kinniss Post No. 162, American Legion, at a meeting of the auxiliary Monday night in the post home on South High street.

The invocation was extended by Mrs. Ralph DeLong, president, and the response was Mrs. Arthur Hoffman of Columbus, twelfth district president. She spoke on "Americanism" and gave a group of poems.

The program in charge of Mrs. Ralph Marquis, Mrs. Eva Hunter and Mrs. Vera Koons presented a piano duet a medley of songs. Vocal selections were presented by an accordion trio composed of Mrs. Koons, Mrs. Lena Hunter and Mrs. Ruth Kersey, and Mrs. Ruth Coffey and Miss Jean Coffey presented tap dance numbers accompanied by Mrs. Goldie Hunter.

Gifts were presented to the honored mothers and Mrs. Palmer Hunter, auxiliary.

Refreshments were served at tables decorated in the auxiliary colors of blue and gold and centered with bouquets of spring flowers.

During a short business meeting, committee reports were given. Mrs. Robert Brown, poppy chairman, reported on plans for the poppy sale. Mrs. Gladys Solie, Americanism chairman, announced that a flag had been presented to the Lee Street Presbyterian church by the auxiliary, and Mrs. Etta Tribbey, rehabilitation chairman, reported that 50 pairs of slippers have been completed to be sent to veterans hospitals.

Plans were made for the auxiliary to prepare and serve a dinner at the sixth district convention to be held here July 18. The next meeting of the auxiliary will be held jointly with the post May 25.

Official Vote Count Completed in County

Official Marion county vote in the primary last Tuesday stands at 9,128, election board officials reported today following completion of the countywide recheck of returns.

Total is only five votes over the unofficial tabulation.

Revised figures show a total Republican vote of 5,839 and total Democratic vote of 3,284.

City vote of 6,700 exceeded the countywide total cast in the 1944 presidential primary when city and county vote together was only 6,228. County vote was 2,423 against 1,984 in 1944.

Recheck of votes found no changes to affect results of the election. City board workers through a mistake in compiling gubernatorial totals short changed Governor Thomas J. Herbert by nearly 1,000 votes. First compilation gave the governor 3,794. Correct total is 4,771.

ORGAN BEING REBUILT

BUCYRUS—Pledges of church groups raised by various means, made possible a complete rebuilding of the electric pipe organ at St. Paul's Lutheran church, now in progress. Rebuilding, estimated to cost $7,000, will convert the present organ into what amounts to a new $20,000 instrument, church officials said. An all-new console will be installed, also repairs call for new reeds, leathers, sound chambers, fittings and keys.

Worry of
FALSE TEETH
Slipping or Irritating?

Don't be embarrassed by loose false teeth slipping, dropping or wabbling when you eat, talk or laugh. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH on your plates. This pleasant powder gives a remarkable sense of added comfort and security by holding plates more firmly. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. It's alkaline (non-acid). Get FASTEETH at any drug store.

BERLIN GIVES CUPID WORRY

Rules on Housing and Rationing in Separate Partitions Discourages Romance.

By The Associated Press

BERLIN, May 13—If Cupid is growing prematurely gray he can attribute a large share of his worries to the hindrances to romances which exist in partitioned postwar Berlin.

Since the beginning of the quadripartite occupation of this city in 1945 it has been divided into four occupation sectors—Russian, American, British and French. Some differences in occupation policies existed from the start and there have been increasing as controversies mounted between Russia and the western allies.

Because of chronic shortages of food and lodgings in this battered city, a resident of one sector cannot move into another unless he finds someone in the other sector to trade equal lodgings and food ration cards with him.

Housing Difficulties

You can see what difficulties that poses when, for instance, a young German in the U.S. sector falls in love with and wants to marry a girl living in the Russian zone. Where will they live and where will they get their ration cards?

The tribulations of one such couple as they appeared before the housing ministry were related by the German newspaper "Der Tag."

"So you want to move into another occupation sector," the official said to the prospective groom. "Well, can you offer an exchange partner who will move from our sector into your sector?"

The marriage applicant. "Well, must the exchange partner eat just exactly as much as I, or can he hold a greater or lesser ration card?"

Official: "It's got to be the same—in lodgings and in food rations. Otherwise, you can't move in. You and your bride may get married, but you can't live together under one roof."

Thus, sector residence has become a necessary prerequisite to romance. Recently, "Der Tag" reported, a young woman placed this advertisement:

"Young, wholesome girl, 22 years old, blond, owns property, seeks acquaintanceship leading to marriage. Prerequisite: must live in same occupation sector."

Paring Off Irksome

The sector borders also offer business difficulties. An Associated Press bookkeeper has been seeking for two years to move from the French to the U.S. sector to be nearer her work. She and her mother have what rates as an extremely large apartment in postwar Berlin—three rooms for two persons.

Their problem of finding exchange partners is practically insoluble. Since only two want to leave the French sector, that will allow only two in from the American. But the housing ministry now forbids occupation of those three rooms in the French sector by only two persons; they must be given to at least three.

To admit three persons to the French sector means three must leave, which sets off another train of circumstances. So what can the two lonely women do but stay where they are? The bookkeeper is still riding clear across town to get to and from her work.

Everybody's Business

SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL has moved quickly to stop any impression that the United States might be thinking about settling points of dispute with Russia outside the United Nations

He does not bar the possibility of two-way talks, but he does emphasize that any important settlements affecting other governments must be made within the framework of the international organization created for that purpose.

This should reassure the British, French, Italians, Austrians, Greeks, Chinese and other nationalities vitally concerned with the threat of still further Russian expansion. They are in no danger of settlements made without their participation and consent. It should reassure the Poles, Romanians, Czechoslovaks, Bulgarians, Finns and the Baltic countries that they are in no danger of being abandoned.

International security is everybody's business—not just the business of the two strongest military powers Secretary Marshall's reminder that he is aware of this is an act of real statesmanship.

A Hanging Party in 1948

THE jackpot question for organized labor in 1948 is shaping up like this:

Will striking unions hang themselves in their own rope?

The leaders of these unions are facing a new set of conditions. Consumer buying power has been shrunk by inflation. Management is acutely aware of the danger of pricing the products of industry out of the mass market.

The postwar formula of passing higher production costs along to the consumer isn't foolproof any more. Management as a whole is inclined to think that production costs must be stabilized—reduced if possible—to keep buyers from being driven out of the market because of inability to meet the price.

Aside from the theory of business management, union leaders also need to be aware of the circumstances of their own members—who are part of the mass market. Every strike that reduces the buying power of labor aggravates the condition that makes it impossible to pass along higher production costs to consumers. The fact is that some strikes aren't worth the candle; they hurt labor. Whatever may be the purposes of union leadership in calling strikes that cost more than they're worth, they are of no benefit to the workers who make the financial sacrifice.

A third condition that union leadership needs to take into consideration in 1948 is the temper of the public. It is sick and tired of being abused by work stoppages at its expense. Labor leaders need to realize that they are playing with dynamite when they press their luck. The voting public could provide itself in an election year with a congress determined to go even further than the Taft-Hartley act in curbing monopolistic practices in labor union leadership.

There's nothing in sight to restrain the unions from hanging themselves in their own rope, except the judgment of their leaders. There is plenty of rope available. John L. Lewis and the three railroad brotherhoods that forced seizure of the railroad industry have been playing with it. Other leaders have been eying it with relish.

Those Draft Rejectees

THE next time a special pleader argues that 36 per cent of the men examined for selective service in World War II were rejected and therefore the United States needs socialized medicine, there are a few things to remember. As listed by Dr. Maurice Criedman in Nation's Business, they are:

That the rejection rate was really 28 per cent because the larger proportion does not take into account the volunteers who passed medical examinations.

That the physical standards used by medical examiners were far more exacting than those used to determine ordinary conditions of health.

That many rejections were the result of medical attention, such as diabetics undergoing treatment, amputees and heart patients.

That many rejectees would have been accepted by European armies.

That relatively few of them were physically handicapped as far as routine living was concerned. Football and baseball players who were rejected continued to engage in these strenuous sports.

That many were rejected because of educational deficiencies and physical handicaps that cannot be traced to any lack of medical care—flat feet, bad eyesight, poor hearing etc.

That the United States is, on the whole, a tribute as far as its state of public health is concerned, to the system of private medicine that has helped to make it that way—a constant embarrassment to those who cite bogus statistics to show it is a nation of cripples and weaklings because it doesn't have socialized medicine

Did You Know

Scanning the Record

By George E. Sokolsky

Every American Should See "The Iron Curtain."

I SUPPOSE the producers would prefer me to say that Gene Tierney is beautiful and engaging in the film, "The Iron Curtain," and that the picture itself is grand melodrama, captivating, stimulating, exciting. If that is what they want, they must look elsewhere, for even the amazing suspense which at times holds the audience as in a vise, is not as important to me as that the picture was done at all.

Igor Gouzenko, cipher clerk for Colonel Zabotin, military attache to the Soviet embassy, was sent to Canada in 1943. He was a typical Russian official, taught to be secretive, to lie, to be a robot. What psychological force drove him to betray his government can, of course, not be analyzed here; in the film, it is the influence of his wife and the love of his children whom he wishes to raise in a free society. The fact is that with an unfathomable heroism, in the shadow of death, he did turn over to the Canadian government important files of the Soviet embassy which gave to the world, officially and beyond doubt as to authenticity, the pattern of Soviet espionage in every country.

SOKOLSKY

The Canadian government published the data in "The Report of the Royal Commission," appointed to investigate the circumstances surrounding Canadians in positions of trust supplying a foreign power secret and confidential information.

(Incidentally, a federal grand jury has been sitting in New York for nearly a year investigating the American counterpart of this Soviet espionage in the United States and for political reasons has handed down neither an indictment nor a presentment. Although, as a result of this grand jury investigation, some aliens have been ordered deported, the chief ringleaders in this espionage conspiracy are free men.)

Canadian Report

The Canadian report says of Gouzenko:

"He has undoubtedly been a most informative witness and has revealed to us the existence of a conspiratorial organization operating in Canada and other countries. He has not only told us the names and cover names of the organizers, the names of the Canadians who were caught 'in the net' (to employ the phrase used by the documents) and who acted here as agents, but he has also exposed much of the set-up of the organization as well as its aims and methods here and abroad.

"There can be no doubt in our minds that these attempts, very often successful, to obtain here secret and confidential information cannot be qualified as casual or isolated. They are not merely the acts of over-zealous Soviet employes anxious to inform their own government, the set-up of this organization in Canada is the result of a long preparation by trained and experienced men, who have come here for the express purpose of carrying on spying activities, and who have employed all the resources at their disposal, with or without corruption, to fulfill the tasks assigned to them.

Well Schooled

"Some of these men have undoubtedly been well-schooled in espionage and fifth column organizational methods, and in political and psychological 'development' techniques."

It is this that "The Iron Curtain" shows in dramatic form. The American communists and their allies have used every means, fair and foul, to prevent this picture from being shown. They say that it will lead to war. They insist that Americans have no right to know the truth about them or to adopt means to defend this country against their conspiracy. They go so far as to declare a boycott against every theater which will show "The Iron Curtain."

This film, while it is sheer drama and good theater, is the most important documentary ever produced in the United States. It should be witnessed by every American citizen; it should be shown in schools and colleges; parents should be certain that their children see it. Many persons who are innocent do tangible and sure mischief to their country, no one can remain innocent once "The Iron Curtain" has been made available to the public. As a demonstration of patriotism, this film must be supported. Should the Communists succeed in killing it by boycotts and other intimidations, it will be harmful to our country. See it as a personal demonstration of patriotism!

Purpose of the Smith Note

By Walter Lippmann

IT IS disingenious to explain away the oral statement made by Ambassador Smith as being nothing more than "a reiteration of the American position as it has been repeatedly expressed both publicly and privately.

For in addition to reiterating the American position, the ambassador, acting on instructions from the state department which had been approved by the President and the cabinet, told Mr. Molotov that "as far as the United States is concerned the door is always wide open for full discussion and the composing of our differences," and went on to tell him that members of the Soviet government "have it in their power to alleviate many of the situations which today weigh so heavily on all international life. It is our earnest hope that they will take advantage of these possibilities. If they do, they will not find us lacking in readiness and eagerness to make our own contribution to a stabilization of world conditions entirely compatible with the security of the Soviet peoples."

LIPPMANN

If this was not a "proposal," it was manifestly an invitation. Moreover, the manifest intention was that for the time being the discussion should be carried forward confidentially through diplomatic channels—not with a view to making a secret deal but with a view to preparing the ground for negotiations.

If this was not the intention, why was Ambassador Smith astonished at the publication of the two statements in Moscow? Why, if all that was intended was to "reiterate" our position, are we embarrassed at the publication of the statements in Moscow? Why, indeed, did we not arrange for simultaneous publication in Washington?

The answer can be only that we were trying to do what Mr. Churchill advised the western democracies to do last February: "To bring matters to a head with the Soviet government, and by formal diplomatic procedures with all their privacy and gravity, to arrive at a lasting settlement."

Purpose Not Plain

But it is a long time since we have employed "formal diplomatic procedures" and this first attempt was, unfortunately, inexpertly carried out.

Mr. Molotov does not seem to have been told precisely and explicitly that we were not proposing another public conference but a confidential exchange of diplomatic notes. He needed to be told that. He needed to have it spelled out unmistakably to him that this was not a continuation of the diplomatic procedure of the last three years but a resort to those formal diplomatic procedures which have so long been out of fashion.

In his excellent book, "Peacemaking 1919," Mr. Harold Nicolson wrote: "I have attended many conferences and from each of them I have derived a definite residue of certainty, and it is this: 'The essential to good diplomacy is precision.'" The advantage of resorting to formal diplomacy with the Soviet Union, and suspending the attempt to deal with it by public conferences, is that carefully drafted documents, coolly considered in private, are a far better way than public statements defining concretely and exactly in the real points at issue.

One of the clearest lessons of the past three years is that public conferences and even private face-to-face meetings are a most unsatisfactory way of conducting diplomacy. So the state department should be congratulated on having sought to adopt a different, an older and well-proved, diplomatic procedure, and encouraged—despite the first miscarriage—to go on with it.

No Better Way

There is certainly no better way, and probably there is no other way, by which effective diplomatic contact can be made and maintained with Stalin, Molotov and the politburo. Mr. Marshall has tried exhaustively face-to-face negotiation with Molotov in public meetings. A face-to-face meeting with President Truman and Stalin under present circumstances would almost certainly be disastrous.

Nothing remains to be tried except the exchange of formal documents. Because they are formal, they have great weight. Because they will constitute eventually public record, and are not for the next day's headlines, they must be drafted responsibly.

No iron curtain, no bureaucratic and Byzantine stiffness in subordinate officials can alter the exact and original language of such documents, or prevent them from reaching their real destination, which is Stalin and his advisers.

Did She Catch Him On the Recount?

Alabama's Governor Folsom has married an employe of the state highway department.

He believes in reducing the public payroll, even at his own expense.

Folsom first saw his new wife while campaigning for office. She left him speechless, a most unusual thing or a politician.

It was a case of love at first sight. Apparently, she had just been waiting for a man she could look up to.

They were married the day after Folsom ran in a race to pick Alabama's eight Democratic convention delegates. He was determined to go to Philadelphia, if only on a honeymoon.

Incidentally, I can't help wondering: Did she promise to love, honor and obey him . . . in sickness and paternity suits?

Tying Himself Up

From News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO

It was Friday, May 13, 1938.

Marion Boy Scouts were prepared to take over their duties as substitute "officials" of the city of Marion for one day after taking their oaths of office at a meeting of city council. Richard Acker was to fill the office of mayor on Monday, the day set for the youthful administrators to be on the job. Mayor Frederick C. Smith administered the oath to Ralph Howard, "city solicitor," Paul Schwemley, "city treasurer," and Morris Kline, "council president."

The first Friday, the 13th babies reported born in Marion county were William Ray Dickerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dickerson of north of Marion, and Harold Christian Ruth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Ruth of near Waldo.

Senator King, Democrat of Utah, announced in Washington that he would shortly ask for a congressional investigation of the administration of relief under Harry Hopkins, federal works progress administrator.

John W. Henry, Morrow county farmer who was patient in the Marion City hospital, was made happy by the news that the preceding day 12 of his neighbors, equipped with implements and horsepower, had gone to his farm and done his plowing and corn planting.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

It was Sunday, May 13, 1928.

A troop of Boy Scouts helped check the spread of a fire which destroyed the seven-room home of H. W Beaver, three miles west of Marion on the Green Camp pike. Loss was estimated at between $3,500 and $4,000.

A Mother's day program was given by Marion Lodge of Elks in the lodge hall with Martin Verburg, secretary of the YMCA, giving the principal address.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Strawser and daughter Mary Katherine and son George of Detroit, were weekend guests of Mrs. Strawser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Bechtle of Windsor street.

Miss Virginia Smith, student at Ohio Wesleyan university, visited over the weekend with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Smith of South Prospect street.

Mrs. John Secrest was honored on her seventy-fourth birthday anniversary with a Mother's day dinner given at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Hall, east of Marion.

The Kremlin's Choice

By Stewart Alsop

VIENNA

IN THIS bedraggled city, once so gay and now so dreary, there is little surface evidence of fear. The Austrian people have become oddly hardened to living under the Soviet sword of Damocles. Yet even as this is written, the future of Austria is being decided in Moscow, and the future of the world will surely be closely affected by the decision. For the Western negotiators in London, by refusing to continue the haggling on the Austrian treaty, have quite clearly said to the Russians, "your move."

Joseph Alsop

Thus it is now up to the Kremlin to choose, once and for all. The Soviets can try, for the whole Austrian loaf, by signing a treaty and thus ensuring the evacuation of the Western troops. Or they can accept half a loaf, and try to incorporate only their zone of Austria into the monolithic structure of the great Soviet European empire. In either choice there are clearly explosive possibilities.

Until very recently it seemed likely that the Kremlin was seriously considering the great gamble of signing an Austrian treaty. The gamble must still seem tempting. To the Soviet planners, peering at their maps, Austria must have appeared a soft and easy mouthful, firmly held between the upper and lower jaws of the Soviet sphere, Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia. It must have seemed (at is has seemed to many Austrians and some Americans) that, once the Western troops were withdrawn, Austria could hardly withstand the economic and political pressure which the Soviet Union and its satellites could bring to bear.

But within the last few weeks, the odds have suddenly begun to change. The Marshall plan is passed, guaranteeing an independent Austria and economic breathing spell. The Western allies have let it be known that they will only evacuate Austria if both Western Union and the United States are willing to provide some sort of firm guaranty of the Austrian borders against aggression. Finally, there is the lesson of Italy, certainly fresh in Moscow minds. The Communist party that failed so dismally in Italy is the strongest and best in the West. The Austrian Community party is small and weak, with leaders so inept that they have been rudely reprimanded by both the Cominform and the Kremlin. For all these reasons, it is now believed probable—though still not certain—that the Kremlin will resist the temptation of a bold gamble for all of Austria, and the treaty negotiations will break down, probably never to be resumed.

Probable Soviet Policy

But if that happens, those who have followed Soviet policy at close range expect the beginning of an entirely new, and perhaps extremely critical phase. Once a treaty becomes no longer a possibility, the pressure on the Western powers in Vienna will almost certainly increase. The Soviets, entirely surrounding Vienna, will no doubt make things as difficult as possible for the Westerners. This is certainly a disturbing propect but it has been made clear to the Russians that there is a limit beyond which they cannot go without courting war. No one can accurately foresee how far the Russians will go, but on the basis of previous experience here, it is doubted that they will pass this limit.

Far more alarming, in fact, is the second development which is pretty generally anticipated. That is the partition of Austria, on the pattern of the partition of Germany. For except for Finland, the Soviet zone of Austria is the softest spot, the most likely area of infection, in the whole vast Soviet sphere of Europe.

Miniature Germany

It is easy to think of Austria as a kind of miniature Germany, with the Russian zone as tightly gripped by Russian power as in Germany. In fact, Austria has a central government. Despite some operatic Soviet pressure, the Austrian officials and functionaries of the Soviet zone are responsible, not to the Russians, but to the Austrian government in Vienna. Austrians move freely between one zone and another. Most Austrians in the Soviet zone, with what appears downright foolhardiness, are quite openly anti-Communist and anti-Soviet. Workers in the factories seized by the Russians as war booty are represented by Socialist unions, bitterly anti-Communist, and hostile to their new employers, which must seem to the Kremlin a crowning indignity.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Letters for Special Delivery

DEAR ERIC JOHNSTON:

You could have knocked me over with a gangster scenario when I read in the papers that you were not only chairman of the National Conference on Family Life in America but that at its Washington meeting you made an impassioned speech calling on everybody to rally and fight for the protection of American family life and to keep the young on the right paths. It was because I was under the impression you were also the top man in the movie industry, the one fellow in the country in a swell position to protect the home and to keep the kids from getting too many films blueprinting murder and crime techniques. But this must be some other Johnston and I am glad I realized the mistake. I hate to go off half-cocked.

PHILLIPS

Well, your fine speech certainly roused me and when you told the delegates from all over the country in a straight from the shoulder talk that the protection of the American home was a paramount issue of the day I felt like cheering. I would have sent you a wire of congratulation, too, when I got to the part where you said, "The country must be made to see the immediacy of the crisis threatening American family life," only, like I said, I had the queer idea you were the same Eric Johnston, czar of the cinema, which I now see could not possibly be so.

* * *

You appealed to the National Conference on American Family Life to find ways to help the family strengthen itself and you stirred fathers and mothers everywhere by your deep interest. "There can be no glib and easy solution to broken homes and juvenile delinquency," you declared.

Glibness is out, all right. It takes study and determination, just as you proclaimed. It also takes courage. And sincerity is a big help. Double-talk has got to be avoided. You bet.

* * *

There is no greater threat to the American home and to the future of this nation than the present alarming crime trend among children. In one day the papers carried the story of three 12-year-olds who waylaid and shot a citizen in the back; of a half dozen school children who riddled a teacher's home with bullets from Winchesters; and of an 11-year-old child "snot by six boys who mistook him for a member of a rival gang."

Where do the kids get such ideas? The idea of getting armed to the teeth and doing some bumping off is not natural to any child and it is not taught in any home, Mr. Johnston. Everybody is with you in your realization of the despair and sorrow felt around American firesides as such things go on and we are so glad you see the situation so clearly.

* * *

Will you forward a copy of your speech to the Eric Johnston who has that big job in Hollywood and who could do so much so easily to protect the fireside and keep the kids from learning criminal ways? He will be glad to get it and will want to help, I am sure. They tell me he gets around a lot, too, and is familiar with the American scene generally.

Yours truly,

ELMER.

P.S.—Where do you speak next and could you arrange to get the other Eric on the same platform?

Lesson No. 2

By TRUMAN TWILL

Another thing everybody should be able to do in an election year is recognize facts. This is just as important as knowing how to face the issues.

The way to recognize a fact is to concentrate on it, so the next time it pops into sight it will be recognized. None of that fuzz-brained business of stammering, "The face is familiar but I can't remember why."

Of course, facts keep changing their clothes and putting up their hair a different way. As in the case of ladies who do the same thing this makes them hard to recognize.

The thing to do is select telltale characteristics of facts that should be recognized, such as a mole on the neck, the angle of the nose, or perhaps a conspicuous dental masterpiece.

With such characteristics clearly in mind facts can be recognized with no trouble regardless of how well disguised they may be. Confusion between high and low tariff, for example, can be averted. They are not twin sisters.

An ordinary person can learn to recognize the fact an ax is being sharpened at 20 paces, even though the ax-sharpener may be wearing a costume that makes him look like an undertaker.

A pork barrel can be spotted in a heavy fog even when it is camouflaged to make it look like a grab-bag at a church bazaar. The sense of smell can be of assistance in recognizing this fact.

Log-rolling, another fact that needs to be recognized, can be detected quickly—if in no other way by the crackling of the underbrush as the boys put their shoulders to the task at hand. A sense of hearing helps.

Some of the hardest facts to recognize are honesty, sincerity and intelligence. A little practice will do wonders with them too.

Look for the mole on the neck, the angle of the nose, the dental work. Honesty in an election year invariably can be spotted by the company it keeps. Sincerity can be identified by looking at the record. An intelligent man can be picked by listening to what he says.

By all means recognize the facts—all of them. Most facts are as plain as day. The ones that aren't as plain as day are hard to see only because there is something about them that needs concealing—which is one of the facts that needs recognizing.

When a citizen has learned to face the issues and recognize the facts, he is then ready to go on to Lesson No. 3—how to deal firmly with the realities. That will be disclosed in this space soon. Watch for it.

BUCYRUS JAYCEES IN FLY SPRAY CONTROL

Special to The Star

S May 13—An ex- and mosquito con- grew from an idea ter witnessing the re- work in the South state-wide for Bucyrus Junior Chamber of Commerce which set a precedent in Ohio last season by eliminating flies and mosquitoes from the city and vicinity.

This week the Bucyrus Jaycees started its second year in carrying on the project by which the sponsors hope to win an award in public health at the state convention at Cincinnati, May 14-15-16.

A scrap book carrying complete information on the project, developed by Dick Ulmer, young Bucyrus business man has been forwarded to the state Jaycees awards committee.

Experiencing the comforts resulting from fly and mosquito control while stationed in the South Pacific as fire control man in the Navy during the war, Mr. Ulmer determined to experiment in the same process around his place of business and home, upon his return to civilian life three years ago. The Jaycees, to whom he passed on his information, last year pioneered in the work. This year the state organization has sponsored similar projects by clubs about the state.

The Jaycees carried on the work last year with two portable sprays. This year the club has added a large 55-gallon spray made by Ulmer from a syrup drum mounted on a conduit frame and equipped with hose and pressure spray nozzle. Another portable spray was also added this year.

A DDT 25 per cent concentrate, diluted to a five per cent concentrate is used in the spray. The solution is residual and will remain effective for up to 60 days. The spraying will be repeated late in July.

Starting with business houses, entrances and alleys were sprayed by a group of members, beginning Wednesday night. Club members working in shifts of two during after-business hours went to the city farm to spray garbage dumps, then to the disposal plant. Also to be sprayed is Aumiller park where the DDT solution is also effective in eliminating mosquitoes.

In the Service

Midshipman William Edmund Brown, USN has arrived at the Naval Aid Station, Jacksonville, Fla., for advanced aviation training and upon completion of the three months course, will be awarded his Navy wings. While at the Naval Air Station, he will undergo final phases of aviation training including instrument flying technique and carrier qualifications. Upon being designated a Naval Aviator he will receive orders for further assignment to the fleet. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Brown of 333 South Grand avenue.

Herbert Says He Won Vote at No Expense

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS O., May 13—Gov. Thomas J. Herbert says he won the Republican nomination last week without spending a penny for his campaign.

The governor, who had two rivals, won re-nomination by a wide margin.

Herbert's campaign expenditure statement, filed with the secretary of state's office yesterday, listed no contributions and no expenses.

MR. AND MRS. FOSTER D. LATIMORE of Bain avenue are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Jean Louise, to F. Eugene Reasoner, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Irl Reasoner of South Vine street

Place cards on which were inscribed Jean and Eugene, June 13, to which were caught tiny rosebuds, disclosed the wedding date and also carried out the bride-elect's colors of shell pink and seafoam, when Mrs. Latimore entertained a group of her daughter's friends last evening at their home. The custom of open church will be observed for the ceremony which will take place in Wesley Methodist church, with Rev. H. M. McAdow of Columbus, a former pastor, reading the ceremony.

The evening was spent socially with awards going to Miss Marie Wolf, Miss Alice Benson and Miss Martha Ekey. Miss Latimore's colors predominated in the appointments for a lunch. Mrs Latimore was assisted by Mrs. Irl Reasoner.

Guests included Misses Betty Pence, Martha Ekey, Juanita Augenstein, Emma Bishop, Donna Crabtree, Nell Roberts, Mary Jane Zachman, Ruth Zachman, Alice Benson, Marie Wolf, Lucy Wolf and Rosalyn Rissler.

Both Miss Latimore and her fiance were graduated from Harding High school in 1943. Miss Latimore is employed in the office of the clerk of courts. Mr. Reasoner is enrolled in the college of commerce at Ohio State university. He served two and one-half years in the U. S. Army and spent 18 months with the 63rd Infantry in the European theater. While in service he attended Shrivenham American university at Shrivenham, England

Mrs. Mary Jenner of Silver street was hostess for a meeting of the Jolly Hour club Friday evening. Secret sisters held a Mother's Day gift exchange. Guests included Mrs. Harry Armstrong and Mrs. M. D. Biehl. Contest awards were won by Mrs. Biehl, Mrs. R. A. Titus, Mrs. Ray Martin and Mrs. Glen Riddle.

Mrs. Millard Diehl entertained members of the Le Gai Huit club recently at her home on North State street High honors in cards went to Mrs. Fred Harden and Mrs. Carroll Winters, and Mrs. Robert Burris was consoled. Mrs. Harden will be hostess for the next meeting

"Thoughts of Mother" were given in response to roll call by members of the Arbor Vitae club at a meeting Friday afternoon with Mrs. Frank Fairchild on the Edison pike. Mrs. Walter Fetter conducted devotions by reading the 23rd Psalm. For the program, Mrs. Fetter presented two poems, "Smiles" and "A Tribute to Mother," Mrs. Princess Martin gave a paper, "The Everglades," and Mrs Earl Thomas presented an article entitled "The Story of Ruth and Naomi." Mrs. John Fairchild and Mrs. Francis Fairchild and son, Larry, were guests. The next meeting will be a picnic July 4 at the home of Mrs. Fetter east of Marion.

In honor of Mrs. Marie Cook her daughter, Mrs. Carl M. Miller of the Smeltzer road, entertained a family group Sunday evening for Mother's day. A potluck supper was served to Mrs. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Don Ritzler and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Cook and daughter, Mrs. Don Malone and son, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, host and hostess, and children.

Mrs. Jane Ross was reelected president of the Marion Altrusa club at a business meeting Tuesday evening at Greenwood inn. Elected to serve with her were Miss Lydia Ebel, vice president; Miss Ruth O'Connor, recording secretary; Mrs. Catherine Raub, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Clara Walters, treasurer. Miss Irene Tinklepaugh was elected to the board of directors. A social hour followed. Announcement was made concerning a dinner meeting and guest night program to be held at Hotel Harding May 25. The speaker will be Prof. Ed Wright of Denison university at Granville, and guests will be officers of other Marion service clubs. New officers of the club will take over their duties July 1.

The All Arts club of Prospect closed its season with a picnic Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Eugene Kimmel in Prospect. Twenty-four members responded to roll call with "a verbal 'lum'." Preceding the dinner which was served from a large lable centered with a bouquet of yellow tulips, a hymn was sung by the group. Miss Dorothy Horn, retiring president, turned the gavel over to Mrs. George O. Thomas, incoming president, who gave a short talk. Following the meeting an auction sale was held from which $12.75 was raised to be donated toward a fund for new uniforms for the high school band. Guests were Mrs. Frank Maple and daughter, Jane, of Columbus, and Marshall Kimmel.

Mother's day secret sister gifts were exchanged when the N.O.C. club met Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Dorothy Haubert of 562 Bartram avenue. High honors in rootie went to Mrs. Eileen Alexander, and Mrs. Rose Alice Rowland was consoled. Mrs. Cora Bill won penny box award. Mrs. Betty Andrews was a guest. The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Mary Emerson at 685 Meadow street.

Mrs. Louise Narance was hostess to the A.S.D. club recently at her home at 364 Mary street. Mrs. Gertrude Pearson spoke and showed pictures of her recent trip through the southern and western states. Euchre was played with high honors going to Mrs. Martha Bosse, traveling to Mrs. Ruth Kinney, and consolation to Mrs. Collette Miley. The hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. Joyce Brobeck and Mrs. Suzanne Chabirand. The next meeting will be May 20 with Mrs. Eileen Hilborn of 649 Mary street.

Miss Gertrude Cook of West Liberty was a guest of her sister, Mrs. O. R. Green of 131 Carhart street, last weekend.

Annual Dinner Party Held By Sorority Here

BETA GAMMA chapter, Lambda Chi Omega National sorority, held its annual dinner party for members, their mothers and guests, Tuesday evening in the varsity room at the YMCA. The sorority colors, blue and gold, and the sorority flower, the rose, were carried out in the decorative theme. Guests were seated at three long tables placed in a U-shape. Each was centered with a bouquet of spring flowers at either side of which were lighted blue and gold tapers in triple candelabra. Place cards held miniature rosebuds and favors were individual corsages of rosebuds and blue net tied with rose colored ribbons.

Mrs. Damon Carey presided as toastmistress and the welcome was given by Mrs. Don Jerew, chapter president, with the response by Mrs Esther Maag.

The program was opened with a group of numbers by Miss Dorothy Gail Stephenson, accompanied by Miss Rosaline Manzo. Miss Stephenson's songs were "Wake Up" by Pennington, "The Answer" by Terry and "Mother Machree" by Olcott. Miss Roxanna Pauling, a senior at Harding High school, presented a comedy skit, and Miss Lydia Ebel, religious education instructor in the city schools, gave a talk on the importance of the common, everyday things in our lives. Group singing closed the program.

Gifts from the chapter were presented to Miss Pauling and Miss Ebel by Mrs. Carey.

Guests were Mrs. Charles Stephenson, Mrs. Lowell Cook, Mrs. Harry Key, Mrs. J. R Frayer, Mrs. Ellis Epley, Mrs. J. A. Walsh, Mrs J. H. Weddings

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Mountz of 249 Madison avenue are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Jean Alma, to Charles C. Kibler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Kibler of 273 Uncapher avenue. The ceremony was read Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, by Rev. Ralph Whitney, pastor of the Ohio Avenue Spiritualist church in Columbus, at his home

The bride wore a white wool suit with gold accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Mrs Mountz was costumed in a blue jersey crepe dress with navy accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue ensemble.

Following the ceremony there was a reception at the home of the bride. Assisting were Mrs. Paul E. Duffey, Misses Glennalou and Rachel Mountz, sisters of the bride.

Mrs. Kibler was graduated from Harding High school. Mr. Kibler, a graduate of Claridon High school served two and one-half years in the U. S. Army. He is employed with the Ohio Associated Telephone Co.

Mrs. Lottie Benner of Prospect is announcing the marriage of her daughter, Rosie, to Edward L. Moore, son of Mrs. LaVinia Piazza of 352 Avondale avenue. The single ring ceremony was read Friday, May 7, at 8:45 p. m. in the home of the bridegroom's mother by Rev. William Briggs of Bucyrus. Only the immediate families were present. The day also marked the wedding anniversary of the bridegroom's mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Piazza.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Vinal Foos of Marion.

The bride chose for her wedding an equa blue suit with which she combined black and white accessories. Her corsage was of red rosebuds formed in the shape of a cross. She carried a white Bible, a gift from her mother, and a white lace handkerchief, a gift from the bridegroom's mother. Her only jewelry was a double strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

Mrs. Foos was attired in a cocoa brown suit with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Benner chose a pink and navy blue floral printed dress Mrs. Piazza was attired in a gold gabardine dress. Each wore a corsage of pink and white carnations.

Mrs. Moore was an employe of the Ward-Stilson Co., which was formerly located here Mr moore is employed at the Marion Engineer Depot. The couple are making their home at 790 Nelson street.

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Miss Grace Dix, daughter of Mr. and Mrs Harry Dix of Mansfield, to Clay Tilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. S C. Tilton of LaRue. The single ring ceremony was read Sunday, May 9, in the parsonage of the LaRue Baptist church by the pastor, Rev. Lowell Parish. The couple repeated their vows at 12 o'clock noon before an improvised altar of flowers.

The bride chose for her wedding a pink dress with which she combined white accessories Her corsage was of red roses and gardenias. Her only attendant, Mrs. Robert Watkins, wore a green dress with brown accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses.

Robert Watkins served as best man.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents. The bride's table was centered with a three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

Mrs. Tilton is a graduate of Ontario High school with the class of 1941 and has been employed as a supervisor at the North Electric Mfg Co. plant. Mr Tilton, a graduate of LaRue High school with the class of 1938, served 44 months with the Air Corps in World War II. He is now engaged in farming. The couple are residing in their newly furnished home south of LaRue

District Nurses Hear Dr. Sawyer Speak at Meeting

DR. WARREN C. SAWYER discussed the subject "Rehabilitation and Treatment of Disease and Disorders in Later Life" when members of the Seventh District of Ohio State Nurses Association held its monthly meeting Monday night at the Federation Home.

In his talk and through the medium of charts and statistics, Dr. Sawyer discussed the diagnosis and management of the older age groups and gave a statistical analysis of the population with emphasis on the fact that the older age group is now increasing, and will continue to do so, so rapidly that their care has become one of the most important problems facing the country as a whole.

Harry Stultz, field representative of the Central Hospital Service, Columbus, gave a talk on Central Ohio's Blue Cross plan.

Final plans were made to attend the Ohio State convention of the Ohio State Nurses Association which opens May 19 at the Deshler-Wallick Hotel in Columbus. The next meeting, June 14, will be the annual picnic at Jane Case hospital in Delaware. Miss Frances Coup, chief technician in the laboratory at the Marion City hospital, will be guest speaker.

Hostesses were Mrs. Karl D. Bechtle, Mrs. John Paul Lawrence, Mrs William T. Bland, Miss Jeannette Bender and Miss Kathryn Bausinger.

LEAFLETS ATTACK MOVIE AT CLEVELAND OPENING

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, May 13—Leaflets attacking the motion picture, "The Iron Curtain," were passed out here last night at the show's Cleveland opening.

Uniformed policemen were stationed at both theater entrances, and detectives were among the audience. No disturbances were reported.

The leaflets said, "Don't buy this ticket to war." The movie is advertised as being based on "the personal life of Igor Gouzenko, former code clerk, USSR embassy in Ottawa, Canada."

The leaflets were signed by the "Cleveland Committee Against War Propaganda, 1975 E. 61st St." The Cleveland council of American-Soviet friendship is listed at that address in the telephone directory.

Campaign Expenses Reported by Candidates

Robert T. Mason of Marion spent $1,159 in his recent unsuccessful campaign for Republican nomination for congress in the Eighth district, according to an Associated Press report today. Mason reported to the secretary of state that his campaign spending had all been his own money and that he had received no campaign contributions from other sources.

Other campaign statements of expenditure released by the secretary of state included Albert Edward Payne, Springfield industrialist, who spent $3,163 in his third unsuccessful attempt to obtain the Republican nomination for governor. He also had no contributions.

Frazier Reams of Toledo reported he spent $1,106 in an unsuccessful bid for the Democratic nomination for attorney general. He reported friends had donated $450 to his campaign fund.

Accident, Two Arrests Reported by Patrol

A truck accident and two convictions on minor traffic violation charges were handled by state highway patrolmen yesterday.

Jacob Bauser of Springfield, driving a transport truck on highway 42 yesterday afternoon five and a half miles north of Ashley, ran the vehicle off the road to avoid hitting Wilson Ocker, 72, of near Cardington who was walking along the highway. None was injured. Damage to the truck consisted of a broken front spring.

Denver W. Holliday of near Marion was fined $10 and costs in municipal court today following his arrests on route 23 south of Marion at 12:15 p. m. yesterday when he pleaded guilty to driving a vehicle without registration.

Earl Sanders of Cincinnati, arrested at 4:30 p. m. and charged with crossing the center line and passing on the crest of a hill on route 42, was fined $5 and costs by R. R. Bennington in Mt. Gilead mayor's court.

HARMONAIRES SING AT PALACE THEATER

1,350 Hear Program Sponsored by Marion Club.

A concert by the Harmonaires, radio singers of New York City, who gained fame as station WLW featured artists in Cincinnati, drew a crowd of approximately 1,350 Wednesday night at the Palace theater. The musical event was sponsored in Marion by the Business and Professional Women's club, and proceeds will be used for civic benefit projects of the club under direction of the public affairs committee.

Enthusiastic applause by the audience followed the various numbers by the group of eight musicians, with their novelty and popular numbers particularly well received. A wide variety of subject and presentation made the program of appeal to various musical tastes. The program was divided into two parts of four and two groups each. Several encores were demanded, and by request, the accompanist gave a piano solo arrangement and an encore.

The Harmonaires, originally a group of Columbus musicians who began singing together when they were employes of the Curtiss-Wright Co. during the war, are directed by Raglan Reid, Columbus attorney, who formerly practiced law there. Harold "Hum" Clark is the accompanist. Others of the group who appeared here are Edward Richey, David Newlin and Leroy Bowen, tenors, and George Boswell, Walter Willis and Harris Steele, basses. Two other members of the group were absent because of illness.

Friday Event To Open Graduation at Waldo

Waldo High school will hold its annual P.-T.A. picnic tomorrow in the first of a series of events to be staged over a four-day period in connection with the thirty-first annual commencement for the school, H. L. Swick, superintendent of the school, announced.

Tomorrow's picnic, to be held at the school starting at noon, the senior class program and the eighth grade commencement at 2:30 p. m. and a full program of outdoor sports will feature the day's activity.

Picnickers are instructed to bring well-filled baskets and their own table service. The sports program will consist of racing, softball and baseball by both the boys and girls. The events will be directed by Mr. Furniss, chairman and Mrs. Rengert, assistant chairman, and prizes will be awarded to the winners.

He pleaded guilty to the charge in municipal court this morning and was fined $50 and costs and his driving rights were suspended for three years.

Cars driven by Borden Watson, 34, of 559 Blaine avenue and Henry Richard Bright, 39, of 342½ South Prospect street, collided at the intersection of Blaine avenue and Church streets at 4:55 p. m. yesterday with slight damage to both cars resulting.

Edgar LeRoy Rasey, 20, of near Marion was arrested by police at 8:32 a. m. today and charged with speeding on East Church street. His car was held as bond for his appearance in municipal court this morning where he pleaded guilty and was fined $15 and costs.

DRIVE NETS CANNED GOODS

BUCYRUS, May 13—Resuming a practice in effect before the war, Bucyrus Women's Hospital board sponsored a "Hospital Day" Wednesday which netted several hundred jars and glasses of jellies and other canned goods, contributed by citizens. The collection will be placed on the supply pantry shelves at City hospital for patients.

Bidault, Harriman in Heated Clash Over U. S.-Russian Notes

By KINGSBURY SMITH
(Copyright 1948 by International News Service)

PARIS, May 13—Details of an angry scene between French Foreign Minister Bidault and W. Averell Harriman over the recent American-Soviet diplomatic exchange were made known to International News Service today.

Authoritative sources revealed that Bidault upbraided Mr. Harriman, special ambassador of the European recovery program, on the grounds that Washington had made direct contact with Moscow before previously notifying the western allies.

Bidault expressed astonishment over what France considered a "shocking lack of consideration" for Great Britain and France.

The scene occurred in Bidault's private room at the French foreign office on Tuesday afternoon when Harriman, who had just arrived from the United States called to discuss the ERP.

Passes Up ERP

Bidault, who was visibly shaken, brushed aside recovery problems and proceeded to talk to Harriman as no foreign statesman ever had talked to him before.

Harriman finally was so taken aback that he said:

'Mr. Minister, if the Soviets' purpose in making public the exchange of notes (between U. S. Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith and Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov) was to create dissension among the western allies, they certainly seem to have succeeded in your case."

Bidault finally calmed down on Tuesday night at a dinner given by U. S. Ambassador Jefferson Caffery.

At that time Ambassador Smith, who now has left Normandy on a fishing trip, gave assurances that nothing in the nature of a secret American-Soviet "Deal" or bi-lateral negotiations were involved.

Marshall Assurances Sooting

The French foreign office now has been relieved further by Secretary of State Marshall's formal, public assurances that the Russians gave an erroneous impression of "secret" Russo-American negotiations by their premature release of the Smith-Molotov exchange.

Meanwhile, hopes of an early understanding between Russia the west which briefly brightened Europe's skies disappeared.

11 Army Officers On Cleveland R'y. Duty

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, May 13—Eleven Army officers today were under assignment to the Cleveland district to supervise rail operations during the period of control and operation of the nation's rail system by the government.

The Cleveland district is in the eastern region under the authority of Col. Gustav Metzman, New York Central president.

Ranking officers here are Maj. Curry N. Vaughn, who will work out of the Erie Railroad offices, and Maj. August F. Kapp, who has been assigned to the Nickel Plate road. All 11 officers are from Fort Knox, Ky.

Enters Not Guilty Plea To Assault Charge

Frank W. Stucker, 39, of Barnhart and Adams streets pleaded not guilty Wednesday in municipal court to a charge of assault charges after Stucker had beaten him in a fight over what he described as "family matters."

Stucker was arrested by police at 5:53 p. m. Tuesday on Barnhart street and lodged in city jail where he remains under $100 bond pending a hearing of his case before Judge Hazen at 10 a. m. May 17.

SEES DIVORCE REMEDY

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, May 13—Proper marriage counseling, says a Duke university teacher, could prevent half of the nation's divorces. Dr. Hornell Hart, professor of sociology, told the Maternal Health association yesterday that many divorces are caused by a lack of understanding on issues that are likely to become critical after marriage.

at the back with a serving counter on one side and dressing room on the other.

Plan of Building

The serving counter will be connected with the kitchen located below by a dumb waiter. The lower floor in addition to the kitchen will include a furnace room, supply room, club room and lavatories. The building has been designed with an eye for community use and will be made available for Scout meetings, church suppers and community events.

Work on the new building is to start as soon as the old hall is down and the site cleared ready for excavation, according to building committee plans. It is expected that it will be ready for occupancy though not completely finished inside, yet this year.

Here again the Legionnaires are cooperating on the job. No contract will be let for construction as the work will be done by members of the post on their own time under the direction of the building committee.

"If we get stuck on how to handle some particular part of the job, we'll ask John Moore for a little advice," Dwight Sager, building committee chairman said. They don't expect to get stuck, however.

They're more interested right at the present time in having members who have building fund pledges still outstanding get their contributions in so that there will be no chance of delay in getting the materials for the building. That isn't bothering the committee too much either. "The boys will come through, they always have," Sager said.

Standard "proof spirit" contains 57.27 per cent of alcohol by volume.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Jeb Had the Folks in Stitches!

At the Friday Night Social, Jeb Crowell had the audience in stitches—doing a take-off on the blustering character who belittles everybody and everything that isn't from his own home town.

Well, we can laugh at that sort of character because from where I sit, Americans are just the opposite. We like to boast a bit perhaps, about the paint job on the new barn, or the missus' style of cooking—but we aren't intolerant of people who don't think or act exactly the same way we do.

In our town, for instance: Some folks like band concerts, others don't—some families serve beer with dinner, others, buttermilk—and as for politics, there's plenty of healthy disagreement.

But when it comes to denying folks the right to think or act as they choose ... no, we're like you—we don't believe in it, whether it goes for serving beer, or speaking one's mind on public affairs.

Joe Marsh

SENATE GROUP OK'S FARM BILL

New Long-Range Price Support Plan Approved in Advance of Truman Move.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 13—Senators studied a new long range farm plan today as they waited for President Truman to make the next move in the contest for the rural vote.

The GOP-dominated senate agriculture committee approved a revised price support program yesterday in advance of Mr. Truman's planned farm message to congress.

Democratic leaders had indicated earlier this week they would seek to win the farm ballot by plugging the theme that the Republican congress would take no action this year on a permanent farm program

But the committee not only beat Mr Truman to the punch but sponsors said the bill closely follows recommendations laid down by the agriculture department Senator Aiken (R-Vt) principal author of the new measure, predicted congressional approval without major changes.

Sliding Scale Provided

The bill provides a sliding scale of price supports for agricultural commodities which now are being maintained at 90 per cent of parity

When the crops provide a normal supply the price supports would be pegged at 75 per cent of parity When the supply of any farm commodity varied from 70 to 130 per cent of normal the supports would range from 90 down to 60 per cent of parity

The committee revised the parity formula—the system of figuring prices designed to be equally fair to the farmer and those who buy his produce—by adding a "modernization" clause

This keeps the 1909-1914 base period currently used but provides for adjustments to the price relationships of the most recent ten years That would mean that the parity price of most field crops would come down

The present law setting price supports at 90 per cent of parity for the six basic crops will expire December 31. Unless congress takes some action at this session the support levels will then drop to 52 to 75 per cent of parity.

Approve Extensions

Both the house banking and agriculture committees have approved emergency extensions of the present program, but Aiken said he thinks the senate will pass the permanent proposal.

In another farm development yesterday the senate appropriations committee approved a $1,126,587,405 fund for the department of agriculture for the year starting July 1. The amount is $34,736,828 more than was voted by the house, but about $36,000,000 less than asked by Mr. Truman

Guard Co. Commander Speaks to DeMolay

Captain Robert Melby, commander of Co. C 166th Infantry, National Guard, a former master councilor of DeMolay, was guest speaker last night at the semi-monthly meeting of Marion Chapter, held at 7:30 p. m at the Masonic Temple. Captain Melby spoke on the duties, purposes, and operations of the National Guard

Plans were made to hold the final spring initiation ceremonies of the order the night of May 26, at the Masonic Temple. This meeting will be preceded by a "pot luck" supper.

A discussion was held on plans for a special meeting later this month.

TRIBUTE IS PAID TO PIONEER NURSE

National Hospital Day Observed Here.

The Marion City hospital joined others throughout the nation in the observance of National Hospital day and to pay tribute to Florence Nightingale

Visitors were taken on an interesting and informative tour of the institution by James Mauta, hospital administrator, and later were served tea in the dining room

With the exception of the maternity ward the guests visited the various departments and saw much of the equipment of the surgical ward together with a number of X-ray pictures

Cooperating with Mr. Mauta, Miss Irene Finklepaugh, superintendent of nurses, and the hospital staff were members of the Woman's Board of the Marion City hospital who were hostesses for the social part of the afternoon

Two teas were arranged one at 2:30 and the other at 3:30 p m

Hospital day which was observed for many years here, was discontinued through the war years because of the emergency and pressing duties of the staff

BOB SHUFORD TO CATCH FOR CUBS

Outfielder of Last Year Due in Town Today.

Bob Shuford is coming back to the Marion Cubs—as a catcher.

The hefty 25-year-old rightfielder of last year's Marion ball club, who hit 12 home runs and batted .296, was converted into a catcher at Selma, Ala., this year, and was optioned to the Marion ball club today to take over the unlucky backstopping duties.

He'll replace Bob Osgood who died of a heart attack at Richmond, Ind., Tuesday night.

Osgood was sent to Marion to replace Manager Zeke Bezeza, who was sidelined when a bone in his hand was broken at Springfield last week.

The Cubs other catcher—Tom Gatts—has suffered no ill luck.

"Shus" Shuford is due to arrive in Marion with his wife sometime today, and will leave immediately for Muncie, Ind., where the Cubs open a two game series with the league-leading Reds tonight.

All of the Ohio-Indiana league games last night were postponed by rain.

Two players, shortstop Vito Tuzera and pitcher Tom Jones, were released yesterday by the Cubs to make room for Shuford and an outfielder, Guy Bracken, who will join the ball club sometime this week.

ASHLAND COLLEGE WILL QUIT OHIO CONFERENCE

By The Associated Press

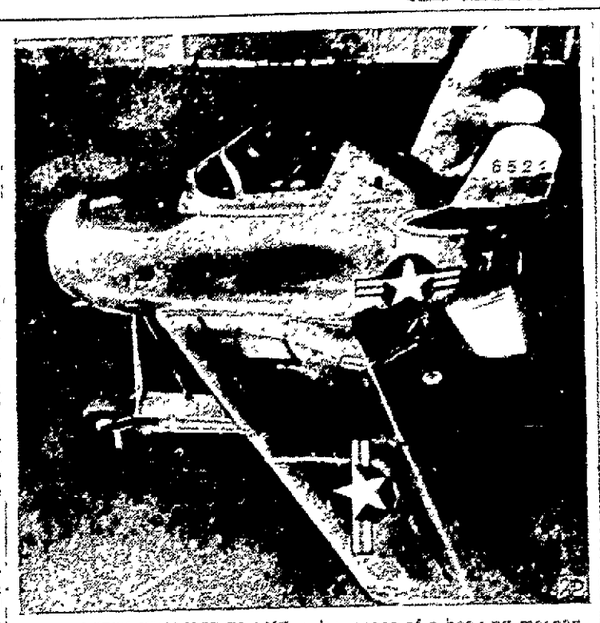
ASHLAND, O., May 13—Ashland college will resign from the 22-member Ohio conference during the spring meeting at Delaware May 28, the faculty athletic committee announced yesterday.

The committee said an attempt is being made to form a new league with Hiram, Defiance, Bluffton, Cedarville, Rio Grande and Ashland. Representatives of these schools are scheduled to meet here May 23 to discuss the proposed league.

KENT GOLF CLINIC

By The Associated Press

KENT, O., May 13—Kent State university's first annual golf clinic will be held here May 30. It will be sponsored by the school athletic department in cooperation with the Akron district golf association. Sessions will be free to the public.



"PARASITE" FIGHTER PLANE. Mounted on a special dolly, the U. S. Air Force's new "Parasite" jet-powered fighter plane, the XF-85 (above), is ready for ground and wind tunnel tests. Plane has no landing gear and is designed to fit into the bomb bay of a B-36 from which all landings and take-offs are made by means of a hooking mechanism. Craft has a wing span of 21 feet and is 15 feet long. Wings are folded back within the bomb bay. Odd tail assembly gives maximum flight stability and still permits plane to fit within the B-36 bomb bay. Tests are scheduled for this summer. (Associated Press Wirephoto from U.S. Air Force)

Trotter Jimmiekin Is 6-Race Winner

By The Associated Press

ARCADIA, Calif., May 13—W. L. Butler's Jimmiekin ruled today as the only six-time winner in the current Grand Circuit harness meeting at Santa Anita park.

Jimmiekin posted his latest win yesterday by capturing the $2,500 mile and one-sixteenth feature trot in 2.13 1/5. Harvey Traveller's Guy Paula was awarded second place in an eight-horse field after second front was disqualified.

The 35-day meeting of the Western Harness Racing association ends Saturday.

WINS SCHOLARSHIP

William Phelps Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Phelps of Evansville, Ind., and relative of Marion residents, was one of two high school seniors in Evansville who recently won scholarships to Purdue university. Young Phelps will graduate from Reitz High school in Evansville in June. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Livingston of Evansville, former Marion residents, and a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Tucker of South Prospect street. His mother is the former Miss Irene Livingston of Marion.

RAIN SAVES TRIBE FROM LOSS TO YANKS

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, May 13—Rain—bucketfull of it — saved the Cleveland Indians from what appeared to be a defeat by the New York Yankees last night.

The two clubs spent nearly six hours at Yankee stadium, but played a fraction more than four innings before a massive throng of 63,832, second largest baseball gathering of the season.

When the first night contest of the season in Yankee stadium finally was postponed just before midnight—after two separate delays of one hour and 32 minutes, and 30 minutes—the Yankees held a 3 to 1 lead as a result of Joe DiMaggio's first inning home run with two mates aboard.

A moment after DiMaggio's wallop into the left field stands, a torrential rain came as if in answer to a hasty prayer by the Indians.

It rained for 45 minutes.

Cardington Girl, 11, In Nat'l. Spelling Bee

Special to The Star

CARDINGTON, May 13—Marlene Bean, 11, Cardington 6th grade pupil, won the Central Ohio spelling championship at Columbus last Saturday, it was learned today. She will participate in the National Spelling bee to be held in Washington, D. C., May 24-27.

Accompanied by her mother, Mrs. C. W. Bean, and her teacher, Mrs. Goldie Gale of Ashley, she will leave Columbus Monday, May 24, by TVA airliner for a four-day all-expense trip to Washington.

The winner of the National spelling bee will have a week's free trip to New York City and a bonus of $500 in cash.

Marlene is one the youngest finalist in the district spelling bee. It was Miss Bean's second trip to the district event. She won the Morrow county spelling contest twice before. Marlene admitted spellings is her forte. She doesn't remember missing a word in school since the second grade.

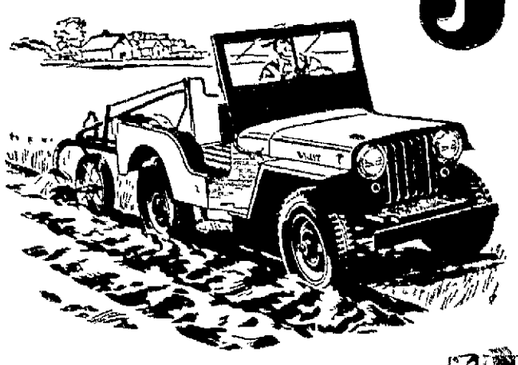
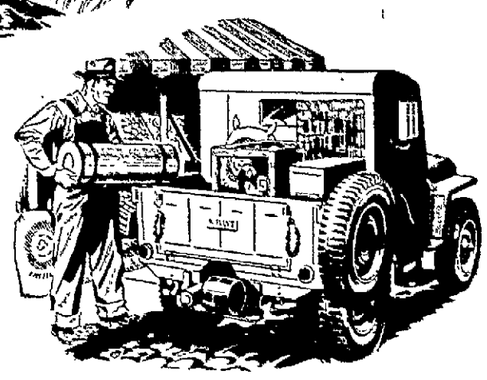
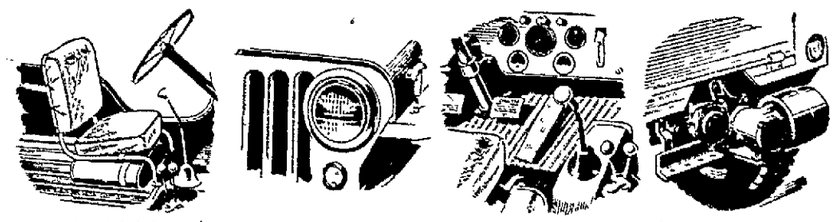
You Get More for Your Money when you get a UNIVERSAL Jeep



YOU GET 4-WHEEL DRIVE for steady-pulling traction in the field. Used as a tractor, the Universal "Jeep" operates plows, discs, harrows and other implements at tractor speeds of 2½ to 7 m.p.h. It's easier on the driver, too.

YOU CAN HAUL AND TOW on and off the road—when you get a Universal "Jeep". It carries up to 1200 pounds, tows a braked load of 5500 pounds—on or off the road. In addition, you also get the comfort and convenience features shown below.





Driver's Seat of spring and cushion construction, with full back, means more comfort with less fatigue from field work. Fenders help protect the driver from dust and mud.

For Night Field Work and highway driving, the "Jeep" has powerful 7-inch sealed-beam headlights—same size lights as used on passenger cars—plus parking lights and tail light.

Easy to Drive as a car. Full instrument panel, self-starter, conventional pedals and accelerator. Change from 2 to 4 wheel drive is made by merely shifting transfer-case lever.

With Power Take-Off the "Jeep" has 30-h.p. for operating all types of belt and shaft driven equipment. You can't beat a "Jeep" for versatility and year 'round usefulness.

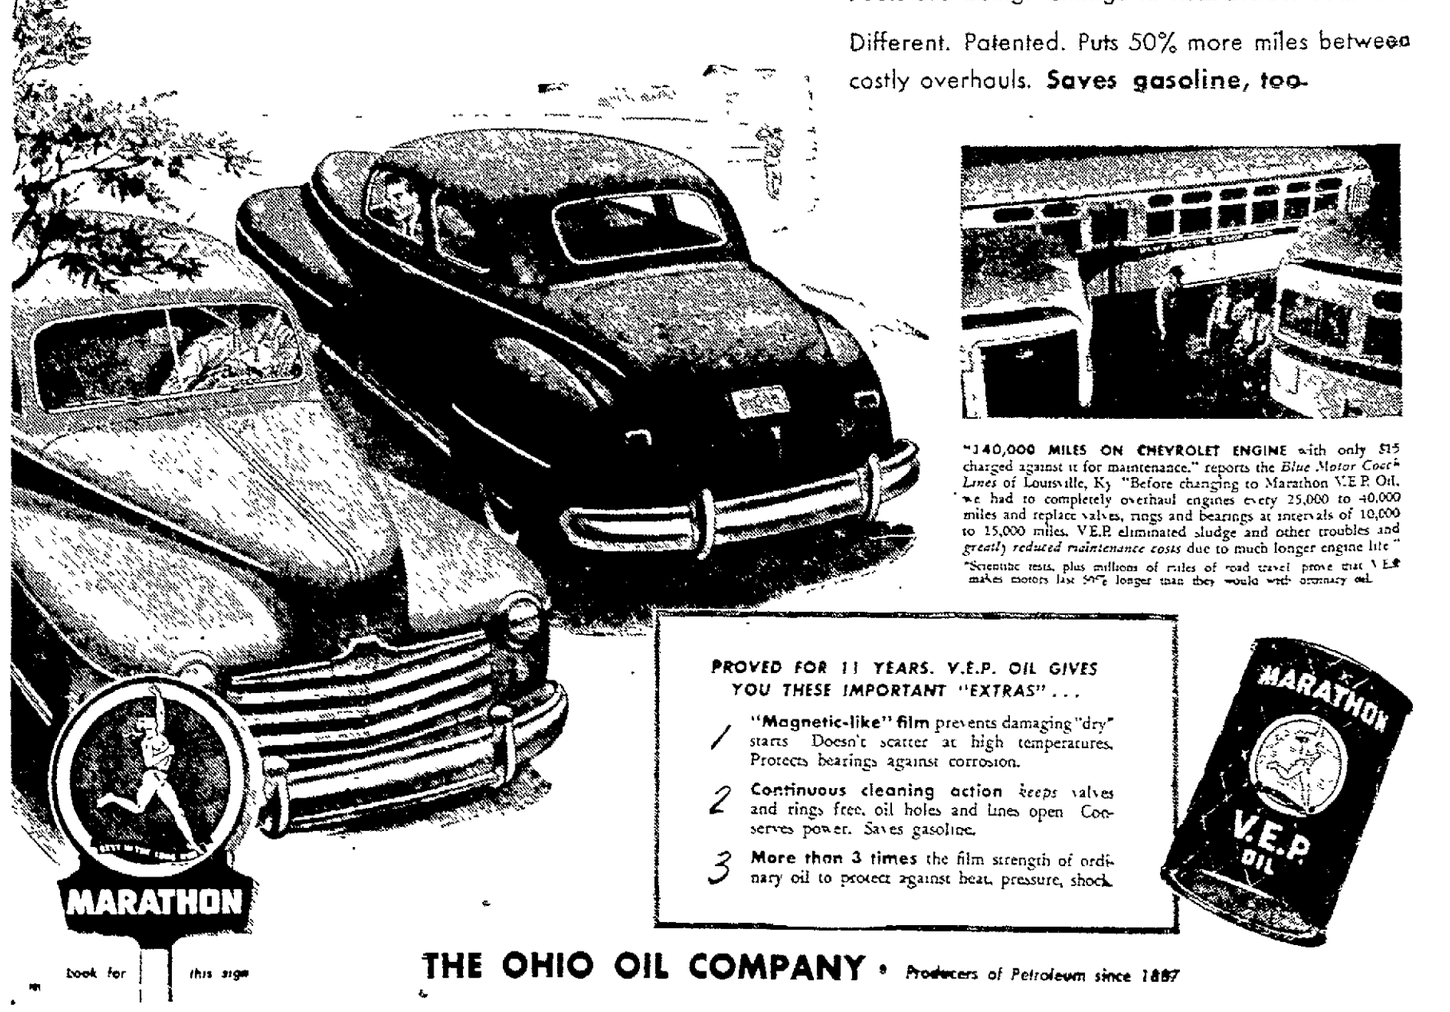
SAVE as the big fleets do

Make your motor last 50% longer* — the way so many taxi, car rental and industrial fleets are doing. Change to Marathon V.E.P. Oil.

Different. Patented. Puts 50% more miles between costly overhauls. Saves gasoline, too.



"140,000 MILES ON CHEVROLET ENGINE with only $15 charged against it for maintenance," reports the Blue Motor Coach Lines of Louisville, Ky. "Before changing to Marathon V.E.P. Oil, we had to completely overhaul engines every 25,000 to 40,000 miles and replace valves, rings and bearings at intervals of 10,000 to 15,000 miles. V.E.P. eliminated sludge and other troubles and greatly reduced maintenance costs due to much longer engine life."

*Scientific tests, plus millions of miles of road travel prove that V.E.P. makes motors last 50% longer than they would with ordinary oil.

PROVED FOR 11 YEARS, V.E.P. OIL GIVES YOU THESE IMPORTANT "EXTRAS"...

1. "Magnetic-like" film prevents damaging "dry" starts. Doesn't scatter at high temperatures. Protects bearings against corrosion.
2. Continuous cleaning action keeps valves and rings free, oil holes and lines open. Conserves power. Saves gasoline.
3. More than 3 times the film strength of ordinary oil to protect against heat, pressure, shock.

LAMB SENDS LIBEL SUIT INVITATION

By The Associated Press

TOLEDO, May 13—Attorney Edward Lamb today invited Rep F. Edward Herbert (D-La) to testify for the Erie (Pa) Times in a libel suit Lamb has filed against that newspaper.

In an open letter to the Louisiana congressman, who in a house speech recently, claimed Lamb had associated with Communists and Communist-front organizations, the Toledo attorney wrote

Wouldn't you be good enough to appear as a witness for the Times in Erie, so that a jury trying that libel suit might have the benefit of your 'evidence'? The Erie Times is going to have a chance to present any 'evidence' which it may obtain from you. I assure you that persons seeking to besmirch my reputation are going to have a chance to answer before courts of competent jurisdiction."

Lamb said in his letter he was issuing the invitation to Herbert to be a witness in the Erie case after being denied a chance to appear before Herbert of a congressional committee to answer Herbert's speech personally.

Herbert's attack on Lamb was connected with a federal communications commission rejection of applications of Samuel Horvitz, owner of the Mansfield (O) News-Journal, for permission to operate a radio station in competition with Lamb.

BACCALAUREATE GIVEN AT IBERIA HIGH SCHOOL

Special to The Star

IBERIA, May 13 — Rev. Paul Walter, Galion United Brethren pastor, talked to a graduating class of 18 Seniors at the baccalaureate services held at the Iberia High School auditorium Sunday.

"We must make it hard to do wrong and easy to do the things that are right," said Rev. Walter, whose theme was "It's not what we are; it's what we can do."

"We need to have a reason for living. We must show others the power of good living, to overcome evil. This power is given to all by God to overcome sin. We must give ourselves wholeheartedly to those things which are right, for tomorrow holds a better day. We can be different if we give ourselves to the Giver of Life."

The processional was "Prelude", Chopin, by Lee Powers. Invocation, Rev. David DeBaer. Girls' chorus, Scriptures Raymond Kent; senior trio, Ruth Ann Thatcher, Evelyn Sager and Mary Henderson; benediction, Rev. Charles Edgar.

Western Union Links Marion With New Speedy Push Button System

Benefits of a new high-speed telegraph system were made available to Marion this week, Forrest R Cox, local Western Union office manager, said today.

Lines from the city to the area connected Tuesday in the new push button switching center in Cincinnati were telegrams to and from Marion will be automatically transmitted to destination by merely pressing a button The Queen City is the transmission center for an extensive area including Indiana, Kentucky, West Virginia and Tennessee in addition to Ohio

Marion is one of the earlier cities in the state to be cut in to the new transmission system.

Cincinnati is the most recent of seven cities in which high-speed switching centers have been installed. When Western Union's construction and plant improvement program is completed, switching centers in 16 major cities will comprise the national network. With each center serving an area of several states. In addition to Cincinnati, switching centers have been installed at Atlanta Richmond, St Louis, Dallas, Oakland and Philadelphia. The remaining centers are scheduled for completion by 1949

With the new push button system each telegram is typed only once, at the point of origin For example, a telegram sent from Marion and addressed to Los Angeles is received in the Cincinnati switching center by a teleprinter device which simultaneously punches combinations of holes in a paper tape and prints the telegram on the margin of the tape A clerk in Cincinnati reads the destination on the tape as the telegram arrives, switches the message by pressing a button marked "L", and it flashes to Los Angeles. There the signals are automatically received in printed form ready for delivery Telegrams coming to this city will receive the same fast and efficient switching

SCENE IN WESTERN UNION'S new $2,000,000 push button telegraph center at Cincinnati through which telegrams to and from this city will be transmitted by merely pressing a button.

More Speed, Fewer Errors

New system supplants the conventional manual handling and rehandling of telegrams via teleprinter from point of sending through central dispatching points on to final destination Eliminated is the retyping of messages for rerouting at major dispatching centers The result will be, Western Union reports, not only speeding up of messages but reduction of the human element of error by elimination of teletypewriter operators now employed in picking up and resending messages at dispatching points.

Radio Beam System Developed

Another feature of Western Union's modernization program is a radio beam network. A beam system has been constructed to link New York, Philadelphia Washington and Pittsburgh. An experimental radio beam system has been in operation between Philadelphia and New York since February, 1945.

The radio beam network substitutes radio towers 30 to 50 miles apart for the familiar pole lines which have been a symbol of the telegraph for so many years Since the super-high-frequency waves in the system travel in a straight line, towers must be used to redirect them at intervals to compensate for the curvature of the earth. Antennas equipped with parabolic reflectors transmit the signals in a narrow beam from tower to tower, and unattended repeater stations automatically and instantaneously send the radio-telegraph signals on their way.

Since atmospheric static is not felt in the microwave region, radio beam transmission is unaffected by electrical disturbances Service interruptions due to ice, high wind and falling trees are eliminated The beam system will afford the ultimate in service continuity and will provide amply for the telegraph growth of the future.

Facsimile Transmission Planned

Another important development is the Telefax This machine provides fully automatic facsimile or "picture" transmission of telegrams A drawing, picture, telegram or what-have-you is dropped into a slot in the machine An electric eye scans the message or picture as it turns on a revolving cylinder, and transmits over the wire or radio beam a series of electrical impulses, representative of the light and dark portions of the message A true reproduction, ready for immediate delivery, is recorded on a similar cylinder equipped with electro-sensitive paper in the receiving machine at destination

A new simplified Telefax machine, known as the Desk-Fax, equipped both to receive and send messages, has been developed and is now undergoing service trials in customer offices It is approximately the size of a telephone desk set. After adequate service experience, the company plans large scale installations in customers' premises.

DROUGHT, WORST IN YEARS, GRIPS BRITAIN

By The Associated Press

LONDON, May 13 — British weather, which has perplexed every visitor, has even the experts puzzled now.

They're puzzled by a drought which has gripped these islands since last June, after one of the wettest springs in years. The experts said it is the worst drought in 101 years with the exception of the dry spell in 1921.

In October — traditionally the wettest month of the year when rivers and underground springs should be filled — the rainfall average over England and Wales was 12 per cent of normal. Over Scotland it was just 50 per cent.

Now, says the ministry of agriculture, wells and springs over a large section of Britain are at a "dangerously low level." The Thames, which should show a natural flow of 1,400,000,000 gallons a day, is down to 600,000,000 gallons.

A metropolitan water board official said:

"Things look serious. We are taking two-thirds of London's water supply from the Thames—some 200,000,000 gallons a day. If warm weather comes, consumption may go up as much as 100,000,000 gallons daily, and if the water level drops we may have to introduce restrictions."

The ministry of agriculture already is putting into effect plans for combatting a summer drought. Committees are arranging for water to be transported to farmers. In particularly dry areas ponds are being deepened and streams and small rivers dammed.

PRESBYTERIAN CLASS MEETS

The Elizabeth Dairy class of the First Presbyterian church was entertained Monday night at the home of Mrs Roscoe Rengert in Waldo, with Mrs. Arden Groff serving as assistant hostess. The program was [illegible] and Mrs. Gu[illegible] ductional de[illegible] "Mother" [illegible] devotions, Mrs. Van Gu[illegible] sented two Mother's D[illegible] Mrs. Roy Scipion [illegible] Jones [illegible] which concluded the [illegible] "False Doctrines in Relig[illegible]" To close the season, the cla[illegible] hold a picnic June 14 at the home of Mrs. Richard Keiser of 536 South Prospect street.

BIBLE CLASS MEETS

The Ladies Bible class of the First Evangelical and Reformed church met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. J. E Wickham on Olney avenue. Mrs. Harry Auker led and conducted devotions, and Mrs. J. [illegible] read two papers "A Salute to the Housewife" and "A Russian Prayer." A poem "At the Age of 90 Years," was given by Mrs Augenstein, and Mrs. A. A. Green presented "Portraits of My Friends" The hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs Perry Brenneiser and Mrs. Walter Moyer. The next meeting will be June 8 with Mrs. J. W. Runge of 368 Windsor street.

New York Stock Quotations

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, May 13—Rising advances continued for selected industries today although many market leaders were restrained by profit selling.

Wall Street still was a bit concerned over the Washington-Moscow diplomatic impasse. The Chrysler strike and other labor trouble provided a bearish argument. The bulge of the market to a 13-month peak inspired offerings by those who desired to collect profits.

Dealings slowed after a fairly active opening. Fractional advances predominated near midday.

Santa Fe touched a new 1948 top. In front most of the time were Atlantic Coast Line, Baltimore & Ohio, Goodrich, U. S. Rubber, Douglas Aircraft, Schenley, Electric Power & Light, Kennecott, General Electric, Pacific Western Oil, J. C. Penney and Paramount Pictures.

Occasional losers included Chrysler, General Motors, Republic Steel, American Telephone, Illinois Central, Sinclair Oil, Anaconda, Allied Chemical, Johns-Manville, J. I. Case and Loew's.

Ohio Sales Tax Revenue Tops '47 by 5 Million

By International News Service

COLUMBUS, O., May 13—Sales tax collections for 1948 now exceed those of last year by more than five million dollars. State Treasurer Don H. Ebright reported today that collections for the week ended May 1 totaled $2,633,422 to boost the year's total to date to $37,345,267.

For the corresponding week of last year receipts were $2,422,801, while the total to date was $32,189,220.

FALLS, BREAKS KNEE CAP

UPPER SANDUSKY—Milton S. Newell, insurance man, was in Findlay hospital today for an operation on his left knee. He had injured his knee Tuesday in a fall. Mr. Newell ran from the garage toward the house because of a heavy rain when he slipped on the wet sidewalk and struck his knee on the edge of the walk. He was treated at the office of a local physician where it was found he had suffered a broken knee cap.

Corn Pops Larger, Fluffier, Better, Thanks to Science

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Reporter

AMES, Ia., May 13—Science is putting a bigger pop in popcorn, to make it fluffier and less crunchy.

Not long ago popcorn that exploded into 24 times its original size was considered good. Now, good popcorn expands 28 to 30 times in volume.

Some varieties developed by Dr. J. C. Eldredge and associates at the agricultural experiment station, Iowa State college, have expanded 34 times in some tests. This big an explosion doesn't always occur, and size 34 popcorn isn't available for popcorn growers. But it may come along in time.

The bigger the explosion, the bigger, fluffier and tenderer the pieces of popped corn, Dr. Eldredge said. People like it better, even though they get less popcorn per bag.

Popcorn vendors like it better, too, because it takes less corn to draw as much money in sales. This is one of the paradoxes about popcorn. Another is that it's one of the smallest, but one of the best known crops in this country.

For years the emphasis in plant breeding has been to get the bigger explosions. The job is difficult, because the corn also must give high yields, stand up well and be suitable for machine harvesting.

Only certain kinds of corn pop well. Moisture in the kernel turns to steam, and the kernel explodes. The steam pressure has to be generated quickly enough to produce a sudden expansion.

It has been thought that the hull acted like a bomb cover, holding in the steam for a time. But this doesn't seem to be the answer. The hulls can be damaged, and the corn still will pop. The popping may be due to the structure of the individual starch grains in the kernel, Dr. Eldredge said. There are millions of these grains.

Graduation Plans Made at Claridon

Baccalaureate and commencement plans of Claridon High school have been announced, with the baccalaureate service set for Sunday night at the Methodist church, and commencement the following Thursday night, at the school auditorium. A school picnic will be held Friday noon next week, and senior class day exercises will be held in the afternoon. The senior play was presented last Friday night at the school, directed by Mrs. Frances Strine.

Rev. W. B. Smith, pastor of the Salem Evangelical United Brethren church of the Beech community, will give the baccalaureate sermon. Processional will be played by Ann Shelton, followed by invocation, Rev. Arthur M. Bosler of the Claridon Methodist church; music, vocal ensemble, the address; clarinet solo, Jo Earl; benediction, and recessional. Time of the service will be 8 o'clock.

For commencement the address will be by Dale Stump, Columbus attorney. Valedictory address will be Lois Kimball; salutatory, Florence Wright, invocation, Rev. Smith; trombone duet, Richard Laurence, and Paul McChesney; music, Girls glee club. Processional at 8 o'clock, will be played by Ann Shelton, and the program will close with presentation of diplomas to the graduates.

Following senior class day program Friday, copies of the Claridon school annual, will be distributed, it was announced.

"As it happens, I almost did ... thing" I said "I asked ... I shouldn't tell her to ... immediately, adding that I ... referred to her last tantrum—"

"And then she got down on her knees clutched your skirts and vowed eternal repentance, adding that she would die if you sent her away from you," Katharine ... relentlessly, and I was furious at myself for flushing even as I laughed at her truthful gibe.

"Yes, she did that very thing," I said, "and as usual, I gave in, and she went blithely downstairs to serve the dinner, after promising me solemnly to 'get along goot mit do' Meesis Ticer.' But, nevertheless, and notwithstanding, I am sure that I can say that was Katie's last tantrum as far as the farm household and the work is concerned."

To the group before me, each of whom knows Katie well, this was unbelievably amusing, and I was not surprised to hear a general hoot of laughter.

"'Laugh, clowns laugh!'" I paraphrased, "but I assure you I am speaking the truth You see I had the help of a 'drafe, big strong man' in dealing with Katie."

Purposely, but furtively, I flicked my eyebrows in the direction of my husband He could stand a little teasing, I told myself, for he had been loud in laughter at Katharine's prodding And our friends snatched at the bait immediately.

"Don't tell me the Dicky-bird flapped his wings and threw his weight around," Lillian said "All Katie would say to that would be a gurgling squeal of "Oh-h Meester Graham, you keel. You sooch a foony fellow!"

Dicky did not flush but he glowered at Lillian with burlesqued ferocity.

"I'll have you know, my good woman," he said loftily, "that if I had thrown my weight around, Katie now would be in a hospital, or a morgue, and I would be in jail, trying to get hold of my lawyer No, it was a more persuasive man than I am, Gunga Din!"

"You need killing for that one," Lillian told him "But, if not Dicky, who squelched our Katie?"

Roving Reports

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

FRED SANDMAN used to enjoy lunching with a big ape at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel.

"The meals were always on the house when we showed up," he said.

The ape, which expected and got the best of service, was Jennie, a chimpanzee. To Sandman, who also helped raise Gargantua, the circus gorilla, Jennie was perhaps the most intelligent creature he handled in 31 years with wild animals.

Hal Boyle

She could typewrite, eat at a table and use a napkin more daintily than the average night club gorilla of those days. She could also play the piano by ear—her ear.

"Whenever Fannie Brice saw us at a hotel, she'd have Jennie come over and sit in her lap," Sandman chuckled.

Today as supervisor of the Central Park Zoo, Sandman is host to 450 caged animals and birds every day, to 50,000 human visitors every Sunday, and to novelist Fannie Hurst once a month.

"She brought me a crow that had been hit by an automobile," he said. "She's always bringing me animals she picked up. Once she brought in two orchid-colored chicks somebody had turned loose in the park after Easter."

EACH MONTH Miss Hurst comes up to see how her crow—named "Nevermore" after Poe's raven—is faring. He can walk but hasn't grown back enough tail feathers to fly.

"People bring in all kinds of animals to the zoo," Sandman said. "They get to be a problem. At least 20 rabbits they bring me each summer.

"Sonny wants to keep them at home but his mama doesn't. I turn them loose in our bird sanctuary here. Then one night some boys climb over the fence, and the next morning the rabbits are all gone."

Sandman takes particular pride in two animals—Leo, the sway-backed lion, and "Charles F" one of the world's few tiglons. Leo had rickets as a cub, and his legs never developed well. Now he walks like Charlie Chaplin and his body looks like a teeny dachshund.

The Tiglon's father was a tiger and his mother a lioness.

"He has a nervous habit of chewing off his tail," said the supervisor. "Done it twice now. Probably frustration. He just can't figure out how he ever happened."

MANY WELL KNOWN figures visit the Central Park Zoo. Dan Topping and Arline Judge used to come regularly. This was before Arline switched to Dan's brother Bob Topping, who recently switched to Lana Turner.

"Lupe Velez liked to come here," said Sandman. "I'd have the chimps put on a special act for her because she was so fond of them."

The zoo has three gorillas and four chimpanzees, but they haven't taken the place in his heart held by Jennie, now dead.

Jennie had a short gay fling with a millionaire before her death.

"He paid me $3,500 for her," Sandman smiled. "He'd send his chauffeur and car over for us. We'd go to his home and Jennie would go through her tricks for him.

"He got a big laugh out of watching her. Afterward they'd play tag, running around the room like a couple of kids. Finally, I guess he got tired. He gave me Jennie back as a gift."

I suppose the moral—if any—is that it doesn't pay to monkey with a millionaire.

Boy Slayer, "For Car," Held for Examination

By International News Service

BRYAN, May 12—Irvin Ingle, 14-year-old confessed slayer from Bryan, yesterday was ordered committed to the state bureau of juvenile research in Columbus for examination.

The young slayer of 63-year-old John Gabriel and his wife Pearl, 56, came before Judge John H. Pfeiffer in Williams county juvenile court yesterday.

He admitted to the charge of shooting and killing the couple and said that he had no further statement to make.

The judge studied the charge of delinquency and ordered that he be placed in the state bureau to undergo extensive examination for a period of six weeks to three months.

Judge Pfeiffer instructed the youth to co-operate with the officials and answer questions accurately.

Special to The Star

ASHLEY, May 13—Plans for Memorial day in this area are being made by the Clyde C. Keltner unit of the American Legion auxiliary and by the post.

Saturday afternoon, May 29, scouts will call at the homes soliciting flowers. Each member is required to state that he or she is a scout and to take no flowers other than those designated by the owner. Residents are asked to save flowers. At the school they will be made into bouquets and wreaths to be placed on the graves the following day. Sunday, May 30, as usual on Memorial day, the parade will form in front of the postoffice. Girl and Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, lodges, the Legion, the Auxiliary and other organizations are to join the line of march which will be led by the school band.

ART THEFT REPORTED

By The Associated Press

COBURG, Germany, May 12—Military government officials said today thieves have robbed historic Coburg castle of priceless art objects which German police valued at $200,000. The loot included two silver clocks presented to the Duke of Coburg by Queen Victoria of Britain, and three paintings.

RABID DOGS A DANGER

By The Associated Press

HAMILTON, O., May 12—A. M. Clarke, city health commissioner, yesterday ordered a 90-day quarantine on dogs in an effort to halt an outbreak of rabies. Three rabid dogs have been found on city streets in the past several days, Clark said.

Symptoms of Sinus Trouble Call for Specialist

...er now ornamental it ... to be, the nose, like ... part of the body, has ... Its duty, which it ... the sinuses or air ... the bones of the face, ... and cleanse the air ... breathe

...ple believe that mucus ... the nose and sinuses ... infection is present, but ... true. The normal ...ing membrane of both ... nose secrete mucus ...ary conditions and, in... ...s an important part ...nction because it helps ...e upper breathing pas... sages moist and prevents drying.

On the surface of the lining membranes are tiny hair-like structures known as cilia which move back and forth and keep the mucous covering in motion. This moving coating of mucus helps keep the sinuses clean and carries off germs. The action of the cilia is stopped by dryness.

Unfortunately, the sinuses themselves often become infected. A discharge of a thick type from the nose usually means infection of the sinuses with germs. If the sinuses become inflamed because of allergy or sensitivity, there is usually a thin watery discharge from the nose.

Many people complain of a dripping from the nose into the back part of the throat. In many instances, this is due to sinus infection. However, it has been pointed out that there are a number of other things which may be responsible for changes in the nose and sinuses, such as overeating, excessive smoking and drinking, and improper ventilation.

Air that is too warm and contains too little moisture is another contributing cause. All of these things, then, may contribute to the development of dripping into the throat from the nose. This is called post-nasal discharge.

Many people think that sinus infection is a common cause for generalized headache, but the pain in sinus infection is more often restricted to the area just over the affected sinus.

If the frontal sinuses, which are located in the forehead, are affected, the pain is in the front part of the head, just above the eyes. The pain is usually worse in the morning and gets better during the day.

The maxillary sinuses are located in the cheeks. Infection here causes pain in the face which usually occurs several hours after arising. The pain may also pass upward over the eyes, and may be located along the upper gum or teeth margins, so that the patient often thinks that he has some trouble with the teeth.

When infected the sphenoid sinuses, which are located further back in the head, produce pain in the back part of the head.

When the ethmoid sinuses, located over the eyes, are infected, they cause a feeling of tightness and pain across the bridge of the nose, and between and above the eyes.

A thorough study by a nose and throat specialist is advisable when sinus infection is suspected. The treatment will depend upon the type of infection present.

Questions and Answers

T. S.: What is the cause for repeated sore throat?

Answer: Sore throat is due to an infection. Just why some persons are more susceptible to sore throat than others cannot be stated. The use of the sulfonamide preparations as a preventive might be considered. It is suggested that you discuss this matter with your physician.

SAYS HE "DESERVES AMERICA'S THANKS." George Dasch, German spy recently freed from prison in U. S. by presidential clemency, tells during interview at Ludwigsburg, Germany, his part in war's biggest spy case, in which eight Nazis were landed in U. S. by U-boat. Dasch claimed he "deserves America's thanks," for disclosing Nazi plot to U. S. authorities, and said he should be acclaimed as anti-Nazi hero. Released with Rasch was Ernest Burger. Six others were executed after capture and trial.

GET FAIR CONCESSION

The dining hall concession for the 98th annual Morrow county fair at Mt. Gilead to be held Aug. 17 through Aug. 21 has been let out to Mrs. Ruth Lowther and Mrs. Delbert Dunaway of Cardington. In an item which appeared in The Star May 4, it was incorrectly stated that the concession would be run solely by Mrs. Lowther.

HEADED FOR WEST POINT

BUCYRUS—John Ralph, Bucyrus High school senior and son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ralph, has received notice that he has successfully filled requirements for entrance as a cadet at the United States Military academy at West Point. The youth's recommendation came from Cong. Frederick C. Smith.

PUPIL IS CHOSEN FOR BOYS' STATE

Paul J. Menzer Will Represent Bird-McGinnis Post.

Announcement of the selection of the Harding junior boy to attend American Legion Buckeye Boys' State this year under the sponsorship of Bird-McGinnis Post No. 162, American Legion, was made and various committee reports were given at a meeting of Bird-McGinnis post Tuesday night in the Dugout on South High street.

Paul J. Menzer Jr. of 534 South Vine street was selected by A. C. May, principal of Harding, and members of the faculty, as the delegate to represent Bird-McGinnis post. J. W. Llewellyn, local chairman of the Buckeye Boys' State, announced the Boys' State will be held June 12-22 on the Ohio Wesleyan university campus.

R. C. Burklew, athletic committee chairman, reported on activities of the post bowling team, and announced plans for entering a post team in the city softball league this season.

Plans for a Sixth District convention to be held here July 18 at Central Junior High school were announced by John H. Moore, commander. Fred Berg was named chairman of the decorating committee for the convention, and the Ladies auxiliary of the post will serve the lunch that day at the Dugout.

Victor Wick, commander of the Waldo post, announced that his post will be host for the county convention to be held Sunday, June 20.

A total membership of 555 in the post at the present time was reported by Newton Cunningham. Prayer by the chaplain closed the meeting and refreshments were served by the social committee.

Weak, Watery Blood Blamed for Making Men and Women Look and Feel Older

THAN THEIR YEARS

How do you feel at the end of a day? Is that old time pep and drive lacking? Have you checked-up on your blood strength lately? Thousands now regaining glowing good looks and vitality through the release of vibrant energy, to every muscle, fibre, cell.

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a general run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloat and give off that sour food taste.

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood. Start on SSS Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—firm flesh fill out hollow places. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle from your drug store. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

GIRL SCOUT TROOP MEETS

A dinner was given by members of Troop No. 1, Girl Scouts, of Vernon Heights Junior High school for 15 mothers Friday at Forest Lawn Presbyterian Community house. Decorations were in green and yellow, and honeysuckle was trailed along the center of the tables. Lapel corsages of violets, tulips and lilies of the valley were presented each mother. The meal was prepared by the members with the assistance of the troop leader, Mrs. Edward M. Ellis. Mrs. Cecil Gabler was a guest of the troop. Members of the troop committee are Mrs. L. V. Knickle, Mrs. Harold Smith, Mrs. Russell Butterworth and Mrs. John Courtright. For a program, Dorothy Rinnert read an essay she had written on "Why My Mother Would Make a Good Girl Scout." Pauline Weston read a poem, followed by group singing. The troop leader was presented a gift from the members.

MEEKER SOCIETY MEETS

At a meeting of the Meeker Methodist WSCS last week, Miss Mary Fay McMillan, Marion county home demonstration agent, showed ways of saving cupboard space and more convenient kitchen arrangement. The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Lowell Cates with Mrs. Maude Buck as assistant hostess. Committees were named for serving the Meeker High school alumni banquet, and rags for rugs were sewed. Mrs. Ralph Sappington presided. Guests were Miss McMillan and Mrs. Berlin. The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Ralph Williams northwest of Meeker.

Potatoes—Indispensable for Menus

STUFFED BAKED POTATOES . . . Delicious and Economical Main Dish

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Eldtor

Are you letting potatoes share in your kitchen strategy? Between food prices and conservation you have to maneuver menus if you want to give your family nourishing and delicious food and still stay within budget bounds. Potatoes, plentiful and economical, can help out endlessly in your menu manipulations.

Here's a delicious potato dish that uses meat economically and can be served for lunch or supper.

Special Stuffed Potatoes

4 large hot baked potatoes, 1/3 to ½ cup hot milk, 4 tablespoons butter or fortified margarine, salt and pepper, 1 cup cubed meat.

Cut each hot baked potato in half lengthwise, or cut off a slice from each one. Scoop out inside of shell, mash or press potato through a ricer. Add hot milk, butter or margarine, salt and pepper to taste and beat until light and fluffy. Add cubed cooked meat. Pile the mixture lightly into four of the potato shells. Return stuffed potatoes to oven or broiler to brown slightly. Makes 4 servings.

Ever bake a chocolate potato cake? It's worth living because it has a moist texture that stays fresh and a spice-flavored chocolate-flecked interior that's delectable. I like to serve it warm with whipped cream for a hearty dessert.

Mexican Potato Cake

1 cup sifted enriched all-purpose flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, ½ teaspoon cinnamon, ½ teaspoon powdered cloves, ½ teaspoon powdered nutmeg, ½ cup butter or fortified margarine, 1 cup sugar, 2 eggs well beaten, ½ cup milk, ½ cup fluffy riced potatoes, 1½ squares (1½ ounces) unsweetened chocolate, very coarsely grated, ½ cup finely chopped walnut or pecan meats.

Sift together flour, baking powder, cinnamon, cloves, and nutmeg. Cream butter or margarine, add sugar gradually and continue to cream until light and fluffy. Add eggs, milk and potatoes. Beat thoroughly and add dry ingredients along with chocolate and half the nutmeats. Turn into 8-inch square cake pan which has been greased and then lined with waxed paper that is also greased. Sprinkle batter with remaining one-half cup nutmeats. Bake in a moderate (350 degree F.) oven for 50 to 55 mins or until done. Turn out on cake rack, remove waxed paper, turn cake right-side up again, cut in squares and serve hot with whipped cream.

Woman Is Injured When Car Hits Pole

Injured about the head and face when the car she was driving struck a utility pole on Leader street, Mrs. Lowell Sherer of 440 Olney avenue was treated at City hospital shortly before noon Wednesday. Her baby with her in the car was unhurt, police reported. There were no other occupants. Mishap was said to have occurred when Mrs. Sherer's attention was momentarily attracted to the child. Utility pole located near the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. warehouse was broken off by the impact which damaged the automobile considerably. Mrs. Sherer was taken to the hospital in the Gunder ambulance and treated for lacerations about the nose and forehead.

Annual American Legion Junior Baseball Season Drawing Near

Player Meeting Scheduled Next Thursday at Central

One week from today, the 1948 American Legion Junior baseball season will get under way in Marion.

That's not the date of the first game, but it is the date of an important meeting in Central Junior High school of the boys who want to play ball this summer on the local Legion team.

It's also the date of a meeting in Delaware where the schedules of the local team and seven others in a newly-formed Sixth district circuit will be set up and approved.

At the Central Junior High school meeting, officials from the Bird-McGinnis Post No. 162, and the Lincoln-Mercury Motor Sales, Inc., sponsors of the local team, will receive applications for positions on the team and discuss the 1948 set-up with prospective players. The meeting will be held in the auditorium and will start at 8 p. m.

In addition, baseball movies will be shown, possibly the pictures "Play Ball, Son," and "All Out for Baseball."

This year the local team gets a break in that players from all over the county are eligible to play on the local Junior team, if their own towns don't have a team and provided that the total enrollment of the schools from which the various team members come does not exceed 2,000.

Since none of the other Legion posts in the county have indicated that they would sponsor a Junior team this year, that means that the Bird-McGinnis outfit can draw the best from the whole county, which should make it a threat in the Sixth district circuit composed of teams from Marion, Mt. Gilead, Mt. Vernon, Delaware, Sunbury, London, Newark and one other town yet to be selected.

22 Game Schedule

The local team has drawn up a tentative 22 game schedule which includes two games each with the other league teams and two games with Mansfield, Shelby and Galion teams and a possible home-and-home engagement with either of two Detroit teams—one coached by Charley Gehringer and the other by Mickey Cochran.

The latter two games, if they can be arranged, will highlight the season schedule.

The home game with one of the two Detroit outfits is tentatively set for July 11, the date of the annual American Legion picnic.

The away game will probably be played sometime in August when the local Junior Legion ball club will take a two-day tour of the Motor City.

It is expected that the Legion officials meeting in Delaware next Thursday will schedule the season opener for June 6.

Set Up Tourney

They will also set up the district tournament dates and pick the town in which to play the tourney. Marion and Newark both were mentioned as possible tournament sites.

The tournament will probably be played July 24 or 25.

The two men who have been working on the league schedules are William Orcutt, manager of the local American Legion Junior baseball team and principal of Central Junior High school, and Ole Olsen of Delaware, a student at Ohio Wesleyan university.

The local Legion team will begin practice the Saturday following the big meeting next week under the guidance of Nelson Irvin, who coached the team last year.

Members of the Bird-McGinnis Post's Junior Legion baseball committee who have been working on the annual summer program this year are W. R. Martin, chairman, Mr. Orcutt, Jewell Ralston, C. M. Rogers, L. H. Larson, Dr. L. W. Kohlhorst, John Mills and Newton Cunningham. Ralph Shick of the Lincoln-Mercury Sales has been working with them.

Sixth District Counties

The American Legion's Sixth Ohio district is comprised of Marion, Delaware, Knox, Licking, Madison, Union and Morrow counties.

The district winner last year was Columbus St. Charles, but since then, Franklin county has been taken away from the Sixth district.

Any boys in Marion county who had not reached their 17th birthday by Jan. 1 of this year are eligible to play Junior Legion baseball and can send the application appearing on this page to W. E. Orcutt, principal of Central Junior High school in Marion.

JAM AT FIRST BASE. First baseman Jake Jones of the Boston Red Sox, after taking a grass-cutter from bat of Tony Lupien, Chicago first baseman, in first inning of their game at Fenway Park in Boston (May 11), beats Lupien (3) to the bag, sliding feet first. Red Sox pitcher Jack Kramer (18), who expected to take a throw from Jones, leaps into the air to avoid collision. Red Sox won 8 to 0. (Associated Press Wirephoto)

Mack's Hand-Me-Downs Extend Streak to 10

Philadelphia A's Upholding Theory That Pennants Can't Be Bought

By The Associated Press

Connie Mack's collection of draftees and hand-me-downs is showing up the rich major league clubs with a 10-game win streak. His Philadelphia A's are upholding the old theory that you can't buy a pennant.

While Tom Yawkey of the Boston Red Sox was writing checks for some $350,000, Mr. Mack was scanning the draft lists. By the studious avoidance of any large outlay of cash, the venerable old gentleman has acquired quite a ball club.

And they've been winning quite handily, too, although they did have to struggle to achieve an 2-4 victory over the St. Louis Browns last night. Three hits and four walks added up to six runs for Philadelphia in the second inning, to the delight of the crowd of 21,763.

Fowler Fades

Dick Fowler, the starter, faded in the seventh and Mack had to follow reliefer Savage with Brissie who worked two hitless innings. The A's thumped loser Cluff Fannin and five successors for 10 hits.

Rain washed out the Yankee stadium meeting of Cleveland and New York with the Yanks leading 3-1 in the home half of the fourth. The postponement nullified a three-run homer by Joe DiMaggio off Gene Bearden in the first inning.

Detroit staged two big innings to down Washington, 14-9, although Hal Newhouser was knocked from the box for the fourth straight time. Dizzy Trout, third of four pitchers, notched the win over reliefer Marino Pieretti.

Sherry Robertson, Washington right fielder, wrenched a knee severely when he slipped while chasing a fly in the eighth.

Doerr's Homer Wins

Bobby Doer's three-run homer in the 10th inning enabled Boston to grab a 6-5 win from Chicago in dramatic fashion. Cot Deal, who pitched to only two batters, picked up his first major league win at the expense of Earl Harrist.

Rain idled half the National league, the New York at St. Louis and Boston at Chicago games. However, the Pittsburgh Pirates were able to get in a game with the Phillies which dropped them a half game back of the Cardinals.

Blix Donnelly of the Phils handed the Pirates their first shutout of the year, 5-0, allowing only three hits. Ernie Bonham was the loser.

Hank Sauer unloaded his seventh homer, a three-run blast in the last of the ninth, but it wasn't enough. His Cincinnati Reds bowed to Brooklyn 9-7, in a night game.

Joe Hatten, the first of four Dodger pitchers, was the winner over Johnny Vander Meer.

Names Threats In Tennis Tournament

By The United Press

ALLIANCE, May 13—The Ohio conference statistics bureau today picked Oberlin, Kenyon and Ohio Wesleyan as the biggest threats to win the conference tennis tournament May 22.

The bureau also singled out five outstanding individual team members. Leading players on the basis of record were Irving Bartlett, Bill Van Riper and John Aker, all of Ohio Wesleyan; Bob Phillips of Denison, and Hartley Johnson, Mt. Union.

Bartlett, undefeated so far, led the field followed closely by Van Riper and Aker with 5-1 records. Phillips also displayed a 5-1 record, and Johnson, playing with a team that has won only one match in seven, won four and lost one.

SCHEDULE GAME

W and W Provision will play a softball game with Oswald Plumbing at 6:15 Friday evening at Garfield park.

CITATION IS EVEN BETTER, SAYS JONES

By The Associated Press

BALTIMORE, May 13—As if the other four horses didn't have enough to worry about with Citation and Saturday's Preakness stakes, word comes up from a man who should know that the Calumet colt is looking sharper today than when he won the Kentucky Derby.

While old Baltimore slowly got itself into the proper frame of mind to entertain the annual Preakness thousands, Calumet's trainer, Jimmy Jones, said his three-year-old star was ready for all comers.

"He's training perfectly, and worked out as sharp as a tack yesterday," Jones said as he hustled his helpers around barn "G" at Pimlico with special attention to the Bull Lea colt many think will go on to become the eighth triple-crown winner in the history of the American turf.

"He is acting better than he has all spring, and I think he is coming up to the Preakness a better horse than he was in the Derby."

That's slight consolation for the owners and trainers of the other four who appear just about ready to plunk down $1,000 tomorrow morning at the entry box. Anxious, more or less, to see if what they heard about the Derby is true.

None of the three-year-olds expected to challenge Citation raced against him in Louisville two weeks ago.

SIX RECORDS CRACKED AT ASHLAND MEET

Though the sixth place Harding High school track men didn't share in it, six meet records were cracked in the fourth annual Ashland Relays held Saturday.

New records were set in the 120-yard high hurdles and 220 low hurdles by Thieling of Cleveland West, as he ran the low in 25.3 and the high in 14.8. Luthn of Painesville stepped off the mile in 4:46.1 for a new one mile record and Mt. Vernon covered the 880 yard relay in 1:37.5 for the new mark. Ashland won the shuttle hurdle relay in 1:04, and J. Gabel of Bellevue put the shot 45 feet, 7 inches as both marks bettered the old record.

Lersch of Ashland crossed the bar in the pole vault at 10 feet 9 inches for a good mark but not a record as Ashland won the meet with a total of 62 points.

WINS DISTRICT TITLE

By The Associated Press

SALEM, O., May 13—Poland High school, the 1947 Class B Ohio track champion, won the Northeastern district title easily yesterday and qualified nine men for the state meet. Coach C. F. Stone's trackmen scored 52 points to 37 for runner-up Springfield Township.

Louis Forgets Diet For Birthday Today

By The Associated Press

BLOOMINGDALE, Mich., May 13—Joe Louis, training here for defense of his world heavyweight championship against Jersey Joe Walcott in New York June 23, throws off diet restrictions today to celebrate his 34th birthday.

Louis' chef for 12 years, Bill Bottoms, has prepared a 30-pound turkey, plus all the trimmings, and a four layer cake for the champion's party.

Harold Waits, welterweight, decisioned Mike Roose of Willard as Mike stalked the whole nine minutes in trying to set Waits up for what appeared to be a powerful right. He never got to let it go, however and Waits took the decision after spilling him for an eight count late in the third.

Three knockouts were recorded during the slugging with Charles Leftwich 158, scoring the most decisive ko as he caught "Rags" Ragland, 153, with a right to the chin after a minute-and-a-half of the second, lifting him off the floor and setting him down on the seat of his pants three feet away where he continued to bounce for a while but showed no indication of getting up to resume the scrap.

The winner hails from Columbus and the loser from Springfield.

Ermil Oskey, 155 of Circleville ko'd Jack Smith, 155, of Columbus in 1:28 of third with a short right. Oskey indicated that he might stage a top bout if matched with someone of equal size. Tony Johnson, 152, of Columbus decisioned James Burton 152, of Springfield as he struggled to reach the tall fighter.

Bill (Torpedo) Tuttle 149 of ville; and Red Bales and Vern Faler of Columbus.

A pair of newcomers to the dirt tracks have made entries for the Sunday program—Clarence Traxler of Sandusky and Bill Grauman of Marysville.

Time trials Sunday will start at noon and the first race on the seven event program gets away at 2:30 p. m.

Mansfield ko'd George Burton of Columbus in a fast clean fight. Tuttle carried too many torpedoes for the slim Burton.

Other decisions were won by Mark Winkle, 130, of Byhalia over Dick Obenour 130, of Marion; Dick James 120, Marion, split decision over Howard Carney 125 Mansfield.

George Carter and Davy Davis both 108, of Springfield fought an exhibition of high caliber.

Referees were Howard Hodges of Marion, Jimmy Jones of Columbus, and Terry Carls of Willard. Judges were Danny Matthews and Monte Blue of Marion and Beaufort Glover of Mansfield.

1ST BIG CAR RACING PROGRAM SET SUNDAY

Big car auto racing will make its debut in central Ohio Sunday, May 16 when at least 31 cars are expected to be on hand at the Jones Speedway, just east of Newark on state route 16.

Efforts to open the track 10 days ago were spoiled by a heavy Sunday morning storm—but even at that there were 26 cars on hand and more than 2,000 fans came out to the track within an hour after the rain stopped.

The drivers have all promised to return for the May 16 race—these include Deb Snyder of Kent O., who ranked second nationally on dirt tracks last year, Hoyte Ward, Fred Provin and Don Wagstaff of Newark, Harold Fitzgerald of New Lexington, Roy Hancock of North Robinson, Lyle Wagner of Fredericktown, Buck Barr and Billy McGee of Zanesville.

Freck, Waddell Lead Club Golf Tourney

H. W. Freck toured the wet Marion Country club course in 82 yesterday to lead the class A field in the match against pat tournament. He carried a six handicap, ending four down to par.

Sherman Halderman ended five down, carrying an 11 handicap and shooting the course in 88.

John Waddell finished one up in the B division shooting 87 minus 15. Paul Hunt ended one down at 91-17 and Otis L. Porter four down at 94-18.

Yesterday's wind and the wet course was blamed for the high scores in the exception of the club's match vs. pat tourney. Late players yesterday were rained out.

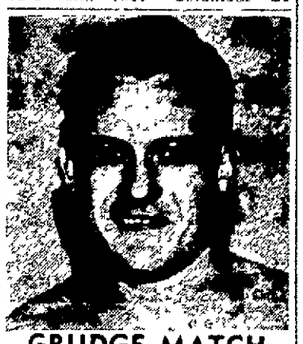
Caledonia Eliminated, 3-2, in Tournament

Caledonia's county champion baseball team was eliminated from the Central district diamond tourney at Ohio State university 3 to 2, yesterday afternoon by Hebron.

Caledonia twirlers Ray and Drake limited Hebron to five safeties and single runs in the first three innings.

Hebron hurler Bob Cash was stingier, limiting the Donians to but two hits and runs in the second and third.

Cardington downed London, 12-2 and faces Columbus St.



GRUDGE MATCH TONIGHT

The main event tonight at the armory has all the earmarks of being one of the best "Grudge matches" seen at the local arena in a long time. It all came out of the tag team match last Thursday. After the match last week Al Alexander who was manhandled by Frankie Murdock, challenged the former "Batman" to a return bout and especially a single match just between the two of them. Frankie accepted this match and they return tonight in the two-hour main event.

Knowing that Marion wrestling fans like new faces and especially good fast clean ones, Promotor Fishbaugh has signed two of the better boys for his one hour semi-final. They are Steve Karas of Boston and Tommy Martingdale of Milwaukee. These two boys are of the younger class of grapplers being around 24 or 25 years old. Both matches are for the best two out of three falls.

Sam Taylor and Carlton Luke will open the show at 8:30 with a ten-minute match. Call 2745 after six for reservations—Adv.

Sports Chatter On This & That

By FRITZ HOWELL
Ohio AP Sports Editor

COLUMBUS, O., May 13—This and that from Ohio sportsdom:

The "Football Coach Wanted" sign is out at Wellsville High school for the sixth time in seven years. Following the resignation of Ralph Lutz who plans to enter the business field in Youngstown.

When Hamilton's Chuck Mather and Paul Schofer signed the other day as Massillon football and basketball coaches respectively, the Stark county school split the grid and cage coaching jobs for the first time in 15 years.

Toledo Inverness Golf club is lining up a lot of talent for its 11th annual invitational 16-player four-ball matches June 24-27.

Among the stars on the dotted line are Skip Alexander, Lloyd Mangrum, Bobby Locke, Clayton Haefner and defending champions Ben Hogan and Jimmy Demaret. (Mangrum has played 51 rounds this season, winning $12,601.99 for the top spot.)

Chauncey-Dover High school banged out a 27-2 victory over Southeastern High of Richmond Dale in a Southeastern district baseball game the other day. The losers made 16 errors, and the winners 21 hits, in the six-inning blast.

THE PHYSICAL education class at Wilmington college enjoys going to school. Tuesday's classroom work was a trip to Cincinnati to see the Reds play as part of the theory and practice course. The Reds lost to the Phillies 4-3.

Ohio Wesleyan is an odds-on choice to take the Ohio conference track and field championship in early season dual meets the Bishops had the best performances in seven of the 15 events. Denison was tops in two events, with Case, Heidelberg, Kent State, Ohio Northern, Oberlin and Wooster having the best performance in one each.

Hamilton High having lost its coaching staff to Massillon, is now shopping around for a new one. Among those under the microscope are Paul Walker of Middletown, Frank Clair of Purdue, Harold Mouch of Hamilton Catholic, Junie Farrell of Canton Lincoln, and Rocky Snyder of Portsmouth.

ST. PAUL EXTENDS ASSOCIATION LEAD

By The Associated Press

The St. Paul Saints, surprise team of the American Association's first month of play, staged a garrison finish to defeat Kansas City 7 to 6 last night and increase their league lead.

The Saints gained a half game on the idle Indianapolis Indians, whose scheduled game with Columbus was postponed because of rain. But their Twin City rivals, Minneapolis, kept up its winning ways and knocked off Milwaukee 12 to 2 to stay two games away from the lead and a half-game behind the Indians.

St. Paul, trailing 6-2 in the eighth inning, rallied for four runs to tie the score and then went on to win the contest in the ninth.

Minneapolis hammered 12 hits off three Milwaukee pitchers to humble the Brewers for a sweep of their two-game series and the Millers' fifth straight win. Minneapolis, after a mild uprising in the second inning with three runs, went to town in the fourth with seven markers.

In the league's third game Bob Raney hurled Toledo to a 4 to 3 win over Louisville to put the Mudhens a half game behind the sixth-place Colonels. He struck out 12 and walked nine.

Redlegs Absorb 6th Straight Loss When Rally Falls Short

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, May 13.—The lowly Redlegs of Cincinnati inched to their sixth straight loss, 9-7, last night but took the Brooklyn Dodgers three hours and 28 minutes to turn the trick.

The Rhinelanders gave the crowd of 23,613 a thrill in the final half of the ninth inning as homerin' Hank Sauer connected for a three-run circuit blow during a four-run rally.

Hugh Casey, the Dodgers' No. 1 fireman, finally put out the blaze and saved the game for starter Joe Hatten who had left the scene in the sixth.

Brooklyn finished batting in the ninth with a 9-3 lead and it looked like the game was in the bag. But after one was away, Grady Hatton, Cincinnati third baseman, doubled and Benny Zientara walked.

Outfielder Johnny Wyrostek then scored Hatton with a single and set the stage for Sauer's seventh homer of the season.

Manager Leo Durocher used three pitchers during the inning. With two away and Danny Litwhiler, the Reds new outfielder, on first by virtue of a walk, Casey took the mound and sent the crowd home as he made shortstop Virgil Stallcup line to center fielder Carl Furillo.

The Dodgers batted around in the seventh inning and built up what proved to be their winning margin as they scored five runs on as many hits and an error.

The Reds clubbed Hatten from the mound in the sixth with a three-run outburst. Three hits and shortstop Billy Cox's wild throw to first, permitting two Redlegs to score, finished the Dodger southpaw.

Johnny Vander Meer, the loser, was the victim of the hidden ball trick in the fifth frame. Vandy doubled and then Clyde Conbitt bounced a fluke single over Cox's head. Vander Meer held second. Shortstop Pee Wee Reese retrieved the ball, kept it in his hand and when the Cincinnati hurler stepped off second, he tagged him out.

Demands Vote Recount Of Hardin Co. Contest

Special to The Star

KENTON, May 13—Homer D. (Sailor) Radcliffe, defeated for the Republican nomination for sheriff of Hardin county by a scant 27 votes in last week's primary balloting by Clarence F. Brown, today had placed bond for a recount of ballots in 12 of the county's 44 precincts.

The official tabulation by the Hardin county elections board resulted in the following totals for the five candidates seeking the Republican preferential vote:

Clarence F. Brown 822, Roy Krisher 268, Homer D. Radcliffe 795, John L. Renfrew 89, and Frederick A. Wood 706.

NEW '49 CARS IN PROSPECT

General Styling Expected To Follow Lines Started by Three Makers.

By DAVID J. WILKIE
AP Automotive Editor

DETROIT, May 13—A lot of 1949 model automobiles are in prospect for the latter half of this year. Most of them will follow the general styling initiated by Studebaker, Packard and Kaiser-Frazer.

That means a lot of new vehicles with pontoon-type fenders in stright lines from headlamps to tail-lights.

Ford already is in production with its 1949 Ford line. The new Fords will be shown publicly early in June. Some time in August one or more of the so-called "independents" will close down to switch over to 1949 model output.

Most sources expect General Motors to have all its new models on the assembly lines by late October or early in November. Some time before the year's end Chrysler probably will make its first major changes since the war.

Styling Changes

Chrysler made a lot of styling and some engineering changes as production went forward, thus avoiding prolonged shutdowns. Among these were the alterations necessary to adapt the new extra low pressure tires to its entire line, including Plymouth.

A lot of persons already have seen the new Ford. Most of them are connected in some way with its production. The Ford company, however, is trying to keep all details a close secret until formal public presentation.

Recent introduction of the new Lincoln and Mercury models led to guesses in some sources that the new Ford styling would follow that of these two other units of the Ford line. It may be said without disclosing any secrets that the Lincoln and Mercury styling only mildly suggests what has been done to the Ford.

New Designs Awaited

Of the new models to come during the latter half of the year the 1949 Chevrolet undoubtedly is being most talked about. Because Ford has developed an entirely new car it is quite generally assumed Chevrolet, too, will have a completely re-designed model.

Some sources even have suggested that, unlike Ford, Chevrolet will have a new type of self-functioning transmission ready to offer as optional equipment in its 1949 cars. Like all other car makers Chevrolet has done a lot of research work on automatic gear-shifting devices and now transmissions.

So far this year Ford has built about 149,000 Ford cars and Chevrolet has assembled about 277,000. It has been estimated the Ford model switch-over shut-down will have cost it close to 80,000 units.

Kaiser-Frazer has disclosed plans to bring out a convertible model this summer but has not indicated any intention of an early change in the overall styling of its present models. However, it has made a number of changes as production proceeded.

Speculation Rife

Studebaker is planning changes for 1949 but the new models may not come out before Jan. 1. Studebaker makes no secret of its belief that it led the way in ultra-styling of postwar automobiles. As a consequence there is much speculation in industry circles as to what it will bring out for 1949.

Studebaker will shortly announce an entirely new line of trucks, already in production.

47 Die in Accidents In Patrol District A

A total of 47 persons were killed and 716 persons injured in the 1,049 accidents on the highways of the 24 northwestern Ohio counties, which make up State Patrol district A, during the first four months of 1948, according to a report released today by Lt. S. D. Augenstein patrol district commander.

This years figures show a decline in the number of persons killed over last year although there were almost 200 more accidents during the first four months this year than last. A total of 53 persons were killed and 649 persons injured in 871 accidents last year.

Arrests almost doubled this year with 2,307 arrests compared with 1,267 arrests for last years first four months.

Written warnings almost trebled with 14,816 issued this period as compared with 5,551 issued the same period last year.

Wood county led the district in fatalities with six persons killed in five fatal accidents while Seneca county led the district in school bus accidents with two.

11-YEAR-OLD BOY DROWNS

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., May 12—Cornelius Gillcrest, 11-year-old son of Mrs. Beulah Mae Williams, drowned while swimming in a quarry last night.

Junior Red Cross Sends 400 Boxes Overseas

Nearly 400 gift boxes filled by the Junior Red Cross and shipped overseas during the year was the report on the gift box project at a meeting of the Junior council Saturday in the Red Cross office. Other projects for the year were reported on, and a nominating committee was appointed including Jim Lytle, Betty Bowden, Gloria Patton and Miriam Kinney. Discussion was held on leadership training camps in Pennsylvania and West Virginia, and on the water safety and swimming programs for the summer. Actual number of gift boxes reported sent was 382. A "thank you" note from Czechoslovakia for boxes received there was read.

BECOMES BUCYRUS EDITOR

Special to The Star

Nevada Girl Scouts Mark Music Week

The Nevada Girl Scouts, in celebration of National Music Week, sponsored a "Community Sing" program last week at the high school auditorium.

The Brownie and Intermediate Scouts, in uniform and carrying flags, formed a horseshoe to open the program. The pledge to the flag was given and the song "America" was sung by the group.

Special features and numbers of the "community sing" included songs by the Brownie Scouts, the Intermediate Scouts, and the Lutheran young people's choral society directed by Mrs. Cecil Heinlen vocal duet by Mrs. Woodrow Heinlen and Mrs. Harry Keller, members of the Pythian Sisters, accompanied by Mrs. Raymond Shields of Bucyrus; song by a trio from Eden school composed of Lois Conrad, Mary Alice Guinther and Donald Jones, accompanied by Jerry Blackburn; song by the Methodist quartet composed of Mrs. Charles Coskey, Mrs. Charles Kellogg, Reed Seiter and Wellington Baker, accompanied by Mrs. Jesse Miller; two songs by Mrs. Lewis Schrader of the Wyandot Baptist church, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Cover of the Wyandot Methodist church; a song by a sextet of Eastern Star members, Mrs. Lucille Koch, Mrs. Gertrude Brandt, Mrs. Betty Jury, Mrs. Eunice Boggs, Mrs. Dorothy Kinsley and Mrs. Evelyn Heinlen, accompanied by Mrs. C. V. Schwartzkopf; the song, "My God and I," by the Lutheran choir under the direction of Mrs. Lester Ritterspach, Mrs. Clyde Markley, accompanist; two songs by a quintet from Nevada High school, Jean Ann Grave, Carol Monroe, Lois and Dorothy Armbruster and Marilyn McLaughlin, and group singing.

Mrs. Dorothy Kinsley, Mrs. Evelyn Heinlen and Mrs. Shirley Healy were in charge of the program.

SOIL GROUP ELECTING

KENTON — Nine men's names appear on the ballot to be voted on in the auditorium of the Hardin county courthouse Saturday for selection of supervisors of the local soil conservation district, it has been announced by the county agriculture agent, B. E. Bradford. The three receiving the highest number of votes will serve for three years, and the next two for two years. The names on the ballot are of Frank Ault, Howard J. Carmean, Andrew J. Donahue, Franklin Garman, Calvin Hellman, Wayne Putnam, Earl Roberts, Harley Shick, and Charles Smith.

Global Scene

By DeWitt Mackenzie

FURTHER elucidation of the American bid for "decent and reasonable" relations with Russia shows that Washington didn't propose any conference but merely restated American policy and added that the door is always open for discussions.

In short, if the Russians have any special proposals there can be discussions between the two governments. However, highly placed American officials say that if the Muscovites have no proposals, there seems to be no ground for conversations.

MACKENZIE

President Truman himself took a hand in the clarification yesterday. He said the statement made to Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov by American Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith represented no departure in American policy. The present international policies will be vigorously and firmly prosecuted. On the other hand, America wants to make it unmistakably clear that she has no hostile designs with respect to Russia.

Now this doesn't mean that the United States wouldn't be pleased to have Moscow initiate conversations, for she would. Still it is well that the matter be cleared up lest anybody get the wrong notion that America is hitting the appeasement trail. Furthermore, European nations are watching this development eagerly and some show an inclination to be over-optimistic.

SINCE MOLOTOV has chosen to construe the American move as an invitation, it is possible that a meeting of some sort might develop. Apropos of this, there appears to be no thought in Washington that it might be staged between President Truman and Marshal Stalin, although the former has said he would be glad to see the generalissimo in America.

The value of such a conference is, of course, problematical. It might have the virtue of further clarifying the positions of the two governments. Still it must be said that the post-war allied conferences in Europe not only haven't helped matters but have made them worse.

THE ONLY THING which would help relations between the democracies and Russia very much would be Soviet abandonment of a policy of world revolution for the spread of Communism. That is the crux of the whole trouble. So long as the Muscovites are bent on jamming the Red ism down the unwilling throats of all nations, there can be no peace.

The United States government in effect recognized that thesis by withholding recognition from the new Soviet government for 16 years—until 1933. America wouldn't stand the Bolshevist propaganda. Britain had similar difficulties. Finally F.D.R. accorded recognition when Moscow promised to stop pushing Communism in this country.

HOWEVER, MOSCOW didn't stop pushing world revolution. Finally along came World War II and created exactly the conditions the Soviet needed to further its crusade. Since then the Bolshevists have boldly pushed their aggression in Europe and Asia and the western hemisphere. Only yesterday the U. S. house of representatives committee on un-American affairs formally accused the Communist party in this country of advocating "the overthrow of our government by force and violence."

Considering all these things do you believe for one moment that Russia is prepared to abandon its world revolution? Of course you don't. Such a supposition would be absurd. And on that basis any American - Russian conference couldn't get very far toward settling their main differences.

ASHLEY DATES ANNOUNCED

ASHLEY, May 12 — Veterans Homemakers group will meet next Monday night. Tuesday Ashley Rebekah lodge members are to hold their meeting. The Ashley East End club gathering has been postponed. Next Wednesday night the Ruth Sisters class will meet in the church parlors, and on Friday, May 21, Mrs. Dora Julian will entertain the Happy Hour club.

CONVENTION REPORT GIVEN AT MEETING

A report of the state convention held May 1, 2 and 3 at Dayton was given by the regent, Mrs. Mary Maxwell at a meeting of Our Lady of Victory circle, No. 388, Daughters of Isabella, Monday night in the Knights of Columbus hall.

Plans were made for the spring rummage sale to be held Friday night at Moira hall and also for a social meeting on May 24 when mothers and daughters will be honored. The party will be held in Moira hall.

Miss Mary Martha Lake was elected recording secretary to fill a vacancy made by the resignation of Miss Virginia Bianchi and Miss Rosemary Caserta was named guide, succeeding Miss Alice Benson, who also resigned.

ORIGIN OF POPPY AS LEGION FLOWER TOLD

Significance Is Explained as Plans Are Made for Sale.

How the little red poppy became the memorial flower of the dead of the two world wars is described by Mrs. Don DeLong, president of Bird-McGinnis Unit No. 162 of the American Legion, as her auxiliary and the auxiliary to the GI Post No. 584 continue their preparations for the annual observance of Poppy day here, Friday and Saturday.

"The custom of wearing the poppy as a memorial flower seemed to spring up naturally both in the United States and England after the close of World War I," explained Mrs. DeLong.

"Returning soldiers brought back memories of the little wild poppies growing along the edge of the trenches, beneath the tangled barbed wire, around the shell holes and over the fresh earth of the battle graves. They were the one touch of nature's beauty which survived in the area of destruction known as 'the western front,' and came to symbolize the heroism of those who died.

"The association of the poppy with the war dead was given beautiful expression in the poem of Colonel John McCrae, Canadian physician who sacrificed his own life shortly after he wrote:

"'In Flanders fields the poppies blow,
Between the crosses, row on row.'

"The poem touched hearts the world over and tied the poppy inseparably to thoughts of the war dead.

"The first instance of wearing poppies in tribute to the dead took place in New York City on Nov. 9, 1918, when Miss Moina Michael of Athens, Ga., a YMCA staff worker, distributed poppies at a conference of that organization."

The poppy was first distributed publicly on the streets of Milwaukee in June, 1919, in connection with the homecoming of the 82nd Division, and was first used to raise funds for aid of the disabled veterans in that same city the following May.

The American Legion adopted the poppy as its memorial flower at its national convention in Cleveland in 1920, and by the American Legion auxiliary at its national convention in Kansas City in 1921.

At first, silk popples made in France by French widows and orphans were distributed by the legion and auxiliary on Poppy day. Making of poppies by disabled American veterans was begun in hospitals in Minnesota in 1922, and the veteran-made crepe-paper poppy gradually displaced the silk poppies.

This year more than 25,000,000 poppies have been made by thousands of disabled men and women working in hospitals and convalescent workshops in 40 states.

The earliest balance machines date back at least 5,000 years before the Christian era.

SCHOOL FOR BLIND BAND PLAYS HERE

30 Musicians Give Concert at Central School.

A group of 30 blind musicians who make up a school band at the Ohio State School for the Blind in Columbus presented a program before the pupils of Central Junior High school and members of the school faculty Tuesday afternoon in the school auditorium. At noon, the band members were guests of the school at a luncheon in the home economics room prepared and served by Miss Ruth Rowe and her ninth grade home economics classes.

Special guests at the luncheon included Cecil W. Gabler, principal of Vernon Junior High school, who is present chairman of the Lions club slight conservation and blind work committee and a past president of the club, and Robert Morrison, president of the Lions club. They extended greetings to the group, and assured them that Lions clubs in any cities would be glad to be of service to them at any time. Mr. Morrison told the group about Guy Moore Jr., who was recently presented a seeing eye dog by the Richwood Lions club and a set of piano tuning instruments by the Marion Lions and that he is now becoming a success independently. Lester L. Dickey, city schools superintendent, was also a guest. A prayer prior to the luncheon was given by Miss Bessie L. Snyder and W. E. Orcutt, principal of Central, presided as master of ceremonies.

Mr. Orcutt stated that the band of blind musicians proved to be a tremendous inspiration to the Central pupils, largely because of their achievements under such a handicap.

The band is made up of both boys and girls from the eighth through the twelfth grade directed by Mr. Beckes. This trip to Marion is the only trip which the group will make out of town this year.

Following the assembly for the Central pupils, the Harding High school orchestra, which regularly practices at Central, played a program of selections for the Columbus group, after which the band of blind musicians gave a program for the Harding orchestra.

Additions Announced To Faculty of School

Announcement of the addition of two instructors to the staff was made today by C. Raymond Smith, head of the Marion Business college.

Added to the staff are James Miller in the accounting department and Miss. Katherine Hazen who will assist Miss Nadean Cook, who is in charge of the secretarial department. Miss Cook joined the staff recently, coming here from the Portsmouth Interstate Business college with which she has been associated for the last seven years.

New courses also are being added to the college curriculum which include summer courses in shorthand and typing, personality development, salesmanship and business efficiency. A course especially for cost accountants will be included as the faculty observes the need for this particular type of training, Mr. Smith states.

The new summer schedule calls for classes from 8 a. m. to 1:30 p. m. This, Mr. Smith points out, permits a full schedule and at the same time allows students to work part time.

Steve Canyon — By Milton Caniff

YES, CANYON ?
NINE MAIDEN, THOSE UNDERGROUND JOKERS ARE LINING UP BEHIND THAT ONCOMING BUS SO WE CAN'T FIRE WITHOUT HITTING THE PASSENGERS! — WE CAN REVERSE THAT POOGE!
HAVE YOUR RIFLEMEN KEEP THEM BACK THERE — AND GIVE ME A FLYING SQUAD TO CARRY THESE SECTIONS OF FENCING...
WITH THE BUS TO GET THEIR ENEMIES' LINE OF FIRE, STEVE LEADS THE NOMADS STRAIGHT AT THE VEHICLE...
MILTON CANIFF

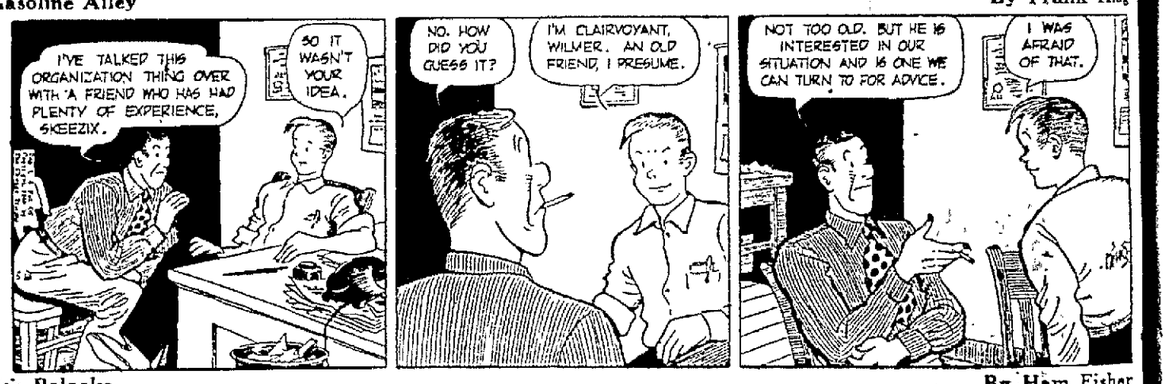
Superman — By Jerry Siegel and Joe Shuster

I'LL AGREE TO TAKE YOU OUT OF THIS BEDLAM ONLY IF YOU OGIES PROMISE NEVER TO REVEAL MY SECRET IDENTITY AND GO BACK TO YOUR ISLAND WHERE YOU BELONG!
BUT WE CAN'T GO BACK UNTIL WE DEMATERIALIZE!
AND WE CAN'T DEMATERIALIZE UNTIL THE END OF LEAP YEAR! ANYTHING ELSE WOULD BE VERY PAINFUL!
PAINFUL? WHAT DO YOU MEAN?
IT REALLY IS ODD THAT NO ONE'S BEEN ABLE TO PHOTOGRAPH THOSE GIRLS. NOW THAT THE CHIEF'S TALKED ME INTO IT, I INTEND TO FIND OUT WHY THEY'RE SO CAMERA-SHY!

Gasoline Alley — By Frank King



I'VE TALKED THIS ORGANIZATION THING OVER WITH A FRIEND WHO HAS HAD PLENTY OF EXPERIENCE, SKEEZIX.
SO IT WASN'T YOUR IDEA.
NO. HOW DID YOU GUESS IT?
I'M CLAIRVOYANT, WILMER. AN OLD FRIEND, I PRESUME.
NOT TOO OLD. BUT HE IS INTERESTED IN OUR SITUATION AND IS ONE WE CAN TURN TO FOR ADVICE.
I WAS AFRAID OF THAT.

Joe Palooka — By Ham Fisher

YOU'D BETTER GET DOWN TO MOORE'S, DEAR, AN' GET US SOME MORE HAM AN' PIMENTOS.
ALL RIGHT... THANK YOU, THANK YOU... YOU SWEET DARLINGS.
UH... GOT ANY SUGGESTIONS ?
I'M AS MUCH AT SEA AS YOU ARE, DAD... THIS HERE'S A BIGGER PROBLEM THAN WE CAN TAKE RESPONSIBILITY FOR.
GOSH I... I WONDER IF... YA KNOW... I COULD THROW THE PAPER AWAY AN' SHE AN' TONY'D NEVER KNOW THE DIFFERENCE... THEY'RE GOIN' T'SOUTH AMERICA...
DAD... THAT MIGHT BE TERRIBLE WRONG... YOU DON'T..YOU GO AN' SEE REV'REND WEHNERT

Terry and the Pirates — By George Wunder

MOTLEY! YOU'RE SOAKING WET... WHAT HAPPENED? WE MISSED YOU AT THE TABLE, THEN WE HEARD A CRY AND A SPLASH...
AND WHY WAS MISS VAN GOBLIN BERATING YOU, MY DEAR ?
OH, GOLLY! HERE IT COMES! THIS DANCING BARE MUST HAVE OVERHEARD MOTLEY'S SCHEME TO FORCE BRONZ TO PART WITH THAT DOGGONED STATUE... AS SOON AS SHE TELLS WHY SHE BROKE UP MOTLEY'S ACT...
YOU MUST FORGIVE ME, MR. BRONZ. I LOST MY TEMPER... TERRY AND I WERE WALKING BY YOUR POOL WHEN WE MET YOUR DANCING GIRL. WE STOPPED TO CONGRATULATE HER ON HER PERFORMANCE — SHE STUMBLED AND ACCIDENTALLY PUSHED ME INTO THE WATER.

The Gumps — By Gus Edson

THIS TRAILER CAMPAIGN IDEA IS (COOF-COFF) PURE INSPIRATION!
RIGHT, HONEST TOM—IT WILL REPLACE THE LOG CABIN IN THE PEOPLE'S HEART!
WELL HANG OUT CIGARS, CAMPAIGN BUTTONS AND SMILES— WHAT THIS NATION NEEDS IS FREEDOM FROM JUMPY NERVES AND CONFUSION!
WELL SPREAD THE OIL OF HUMOR ON THE CONFUSED WATERS OF OUR COMPLEX WAY OF LIFE— LISTEN—
A CENTIPEDE WAS HAPPY QUITE, UNTIL A FROG IN FUN, SAID "PRAY, WHICH LEG COMES AFTER WHICH?" THIS RAISED HER MIND TO SUCH A PITCH, SHE LAY DISTRACTED IN A DITCH, CONSIDERING HOW TO RUN

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY

By AP Newsfeatures

JOE LOUIS (BARROW), born May 13, 1914, in a crowded ramshackle cabin near Lafayette, Ala., fought his way from a poverty-stricken childhood to the heavyweight championship of the world. His fists have earned more than two million dollars in the near-dozen years he has worn the championship crown. His title will be challenged again in July when he meets Jersey Joe Walcott at the Yankee stadium.

One Man's Opinion

By WALTER KIERNAN

Stassen and Dewey are to be commended for agreeing to speak together on the radio . . . In fact listeners would be grateful if the Republicans would run off 10 candidates at once.

* * *

Otherwise this is the year when the summer replacement programs will be replaced by the fall replacement hopefuls.

* * *

I understand Mr Truman is willing to debate opposition Democrats provided he can take them on one at a time.

* * *

I don't know why all this radio fuss . . . Godfrey has done so well wit his "talent scouts" it seems useless for Stassen and Dewey to free lance.

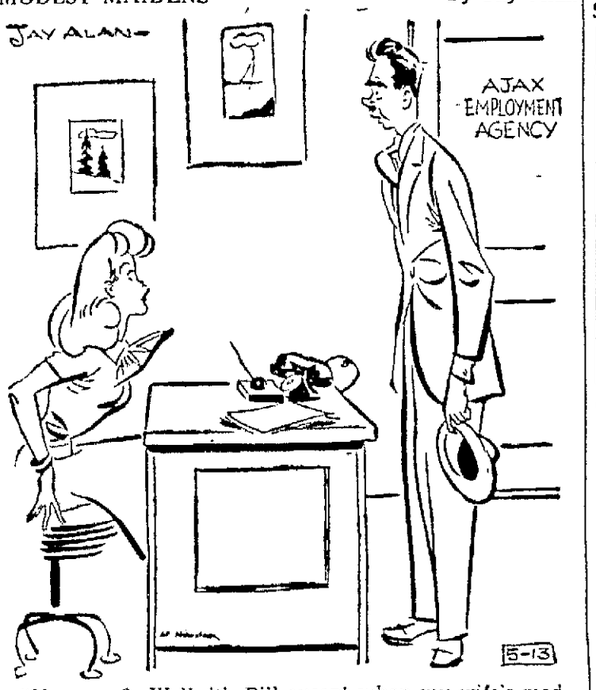
MODEST MAIDENS — By Jay Alan



"My name? Well, it's Bill except when my wife's mad at me, then it's William!"

And Nothing Can Be Done About It — By H. T. Webster

D'YA REMEMBER WILLIE COLLIER? A GREAT COMEDIAN AND WIT. HERE'S A FUNNY STORY ABOUT HIM
COLLIER WAS TOASTMASTER AT A BANQUET WHERE FIRST AN ADMIRAL AND THEN A GENERAL TALKED ON AND ON WHILE THE AUDIENCE WRITHED
COLLIER RESTORED EVERYBODY TO GOOD HUMOR BY HIS COMMENT: "NOW I KNOW WHAT THEY MEAN BY THE ARMY AND NAVY FOREVER."
WELL, WHAT DID THE ADMIRAL AND THE GENERAL SAY TO THAT? I SHOULD THINK THEY WOULD HAVE BEEN QUITE ANNOYED
